OUR COMMUNITY:-THE OLD

OUR COMMUNITY:-THE NEW

THE "HILL"

Those things which we see every day are often taken for granted. There is much in our community that is beautiful: many places of historic interest; intriguing types of architecture; and nature has been "uncommonly good" to us.

Pause a few moments with us as we glimpse some of the high spots of our community, and see some of the people who are working to make our community an even more enjoyable place in which to live.

In the century and a half that has passed since the erection of the Waldschmidt house, the "Hill" has gone steadily forward, and is still seeing new buildings being raised. Buildings where we can worship, buildings where we attend academic classes, and buildings where we make our homes.

We are proud of our community. We are proud of our new schools, churches, homes and the way of life we can live.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

DEDICATION

The Boosters' Club was organized in 1954 with Mr. Robert Gamble serving as acting president until the regular roster of officers could be elected. There have been five presidents of this organization since its creation: Mr. Eugene Rowe, Mr. George Benchenstein, Mr. Louis Wulffhorst, Mr. William Bock, and Mr. George Wellman.

This active group of people set high goals for the club when it was formed: the club was to assist in building up the athletic and the instrumental music programs of I.H.H.S. Just how they have accomplished this can be readily understood when we enumerate just a few of the things which have been successfully completed: purchase of football uniforms, purchase of band uniforms, acquisition and installation of the field lights and the score board. This year the athletic department is making use of a 16 mm. camera and projector. A few of the smaller items for which the Boosters' Club is responsible include: purchase of hockey shin guards, sweat and tee shirts; several musical instruments to add to the size and tonal quality of our band; each year a boy and a girl are sent as our representatives to Boys' State and to Girls' State; and the club also contributes to the scholarship fund of each of the schools in the system.

There is a close bond of understanding between the school and the community because of the stimulus afforded by the numerous activities of the Boosters' Club. So many aspects of our school life have been greatly enhanced because of the interested and untiring efforts of members of this organization.

We are proud to dedicate the 1960 LEGEND to the BOOSTERS' Club of Indian Hill High School. In a small way this is how we can say "thank you" for the terrific work which has been done, is being done, and shall be done by the Club.

REMINDERS . . .

. . . that experiments are a necessary part of science. Sally is doing some explaining.

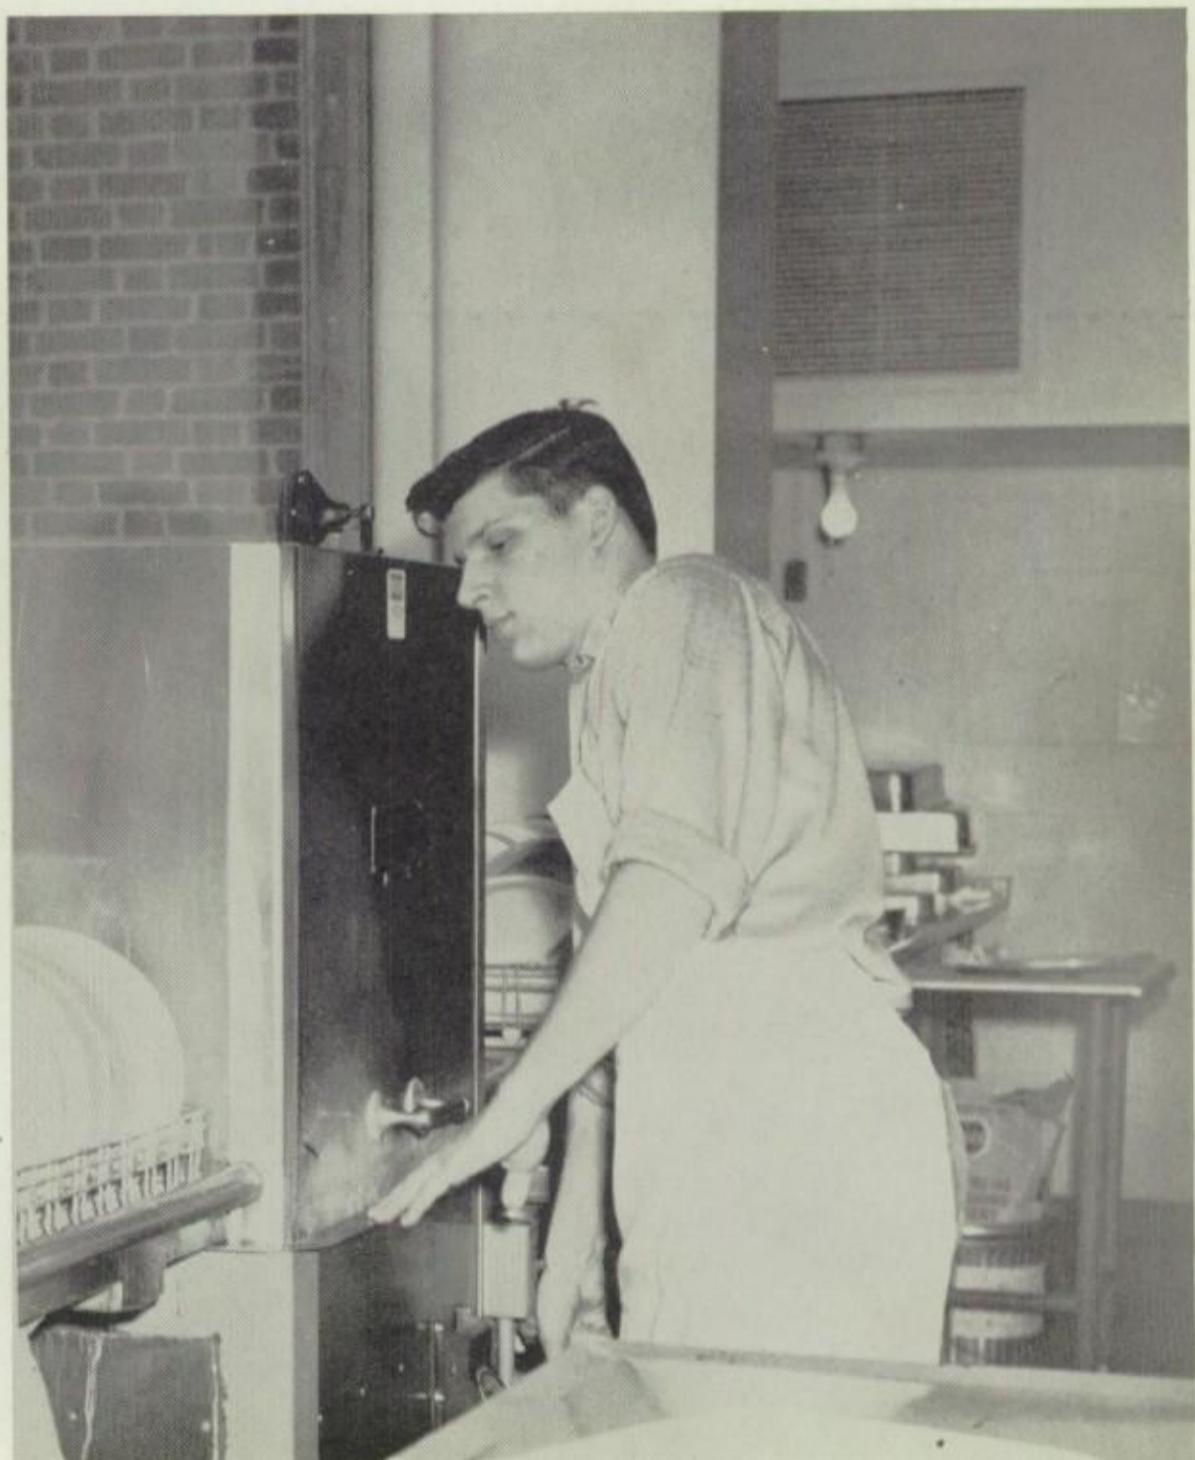

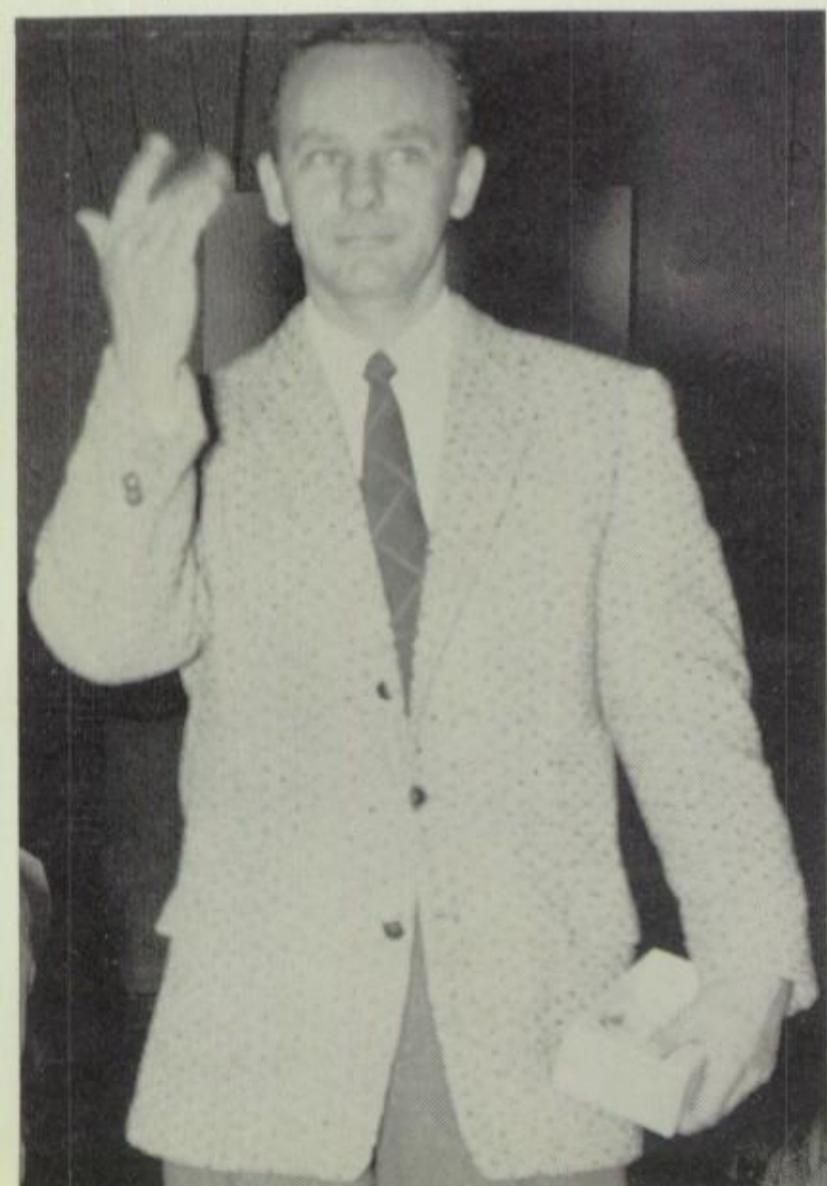

. . . that "one picture is worth a thousand words."

. . . that in so many ways the school and the home perform many of the same duties, but the methods used may differ according to the circumstances and situations. Dick is fast proving that he is an "in-dispensable man."

. . . that certain rows are reserved for Seniors and that Mr. Boland was the able director of our "assembly lines."

"It is the purpose and intent of the people of Indian Hill that the character and uses of the area within the village may not be changed, and that it shall continue to be a rural neighborhood of homes and farms."

(A statement from the Charter of the Village of Indian Hill).

Our high school and the new elementary school are nestled among the trees. These trees form a background that is vibrant with color in the Fall; one that is quietly peaceful when Winter spreads its blanket of snow; and where new life bursts forth when Spring calls the buds into life after a period of dormancy. Mother Nature has truly been gracious to those of us who have the good fortune of being a part of Indian Hill, U.S.A.

THE SUPERINTENDENT AT HOME-

Superintendent and Mrs. Patrick have devoted their lives to the task of improving the standards of education. Mr. Patrick, now superintending the ever-growing system of Indian Hill schools, has been a most active participant in all areas of our educational program. His depth of understanding in problems, large and small, has caused his sphere of influence to reach from kindergarten through elementary school into high school and into the widening community. He and Mrs. Patrick relax after school work is finished in their lovely home on Floral Avenue in Terrace Park.

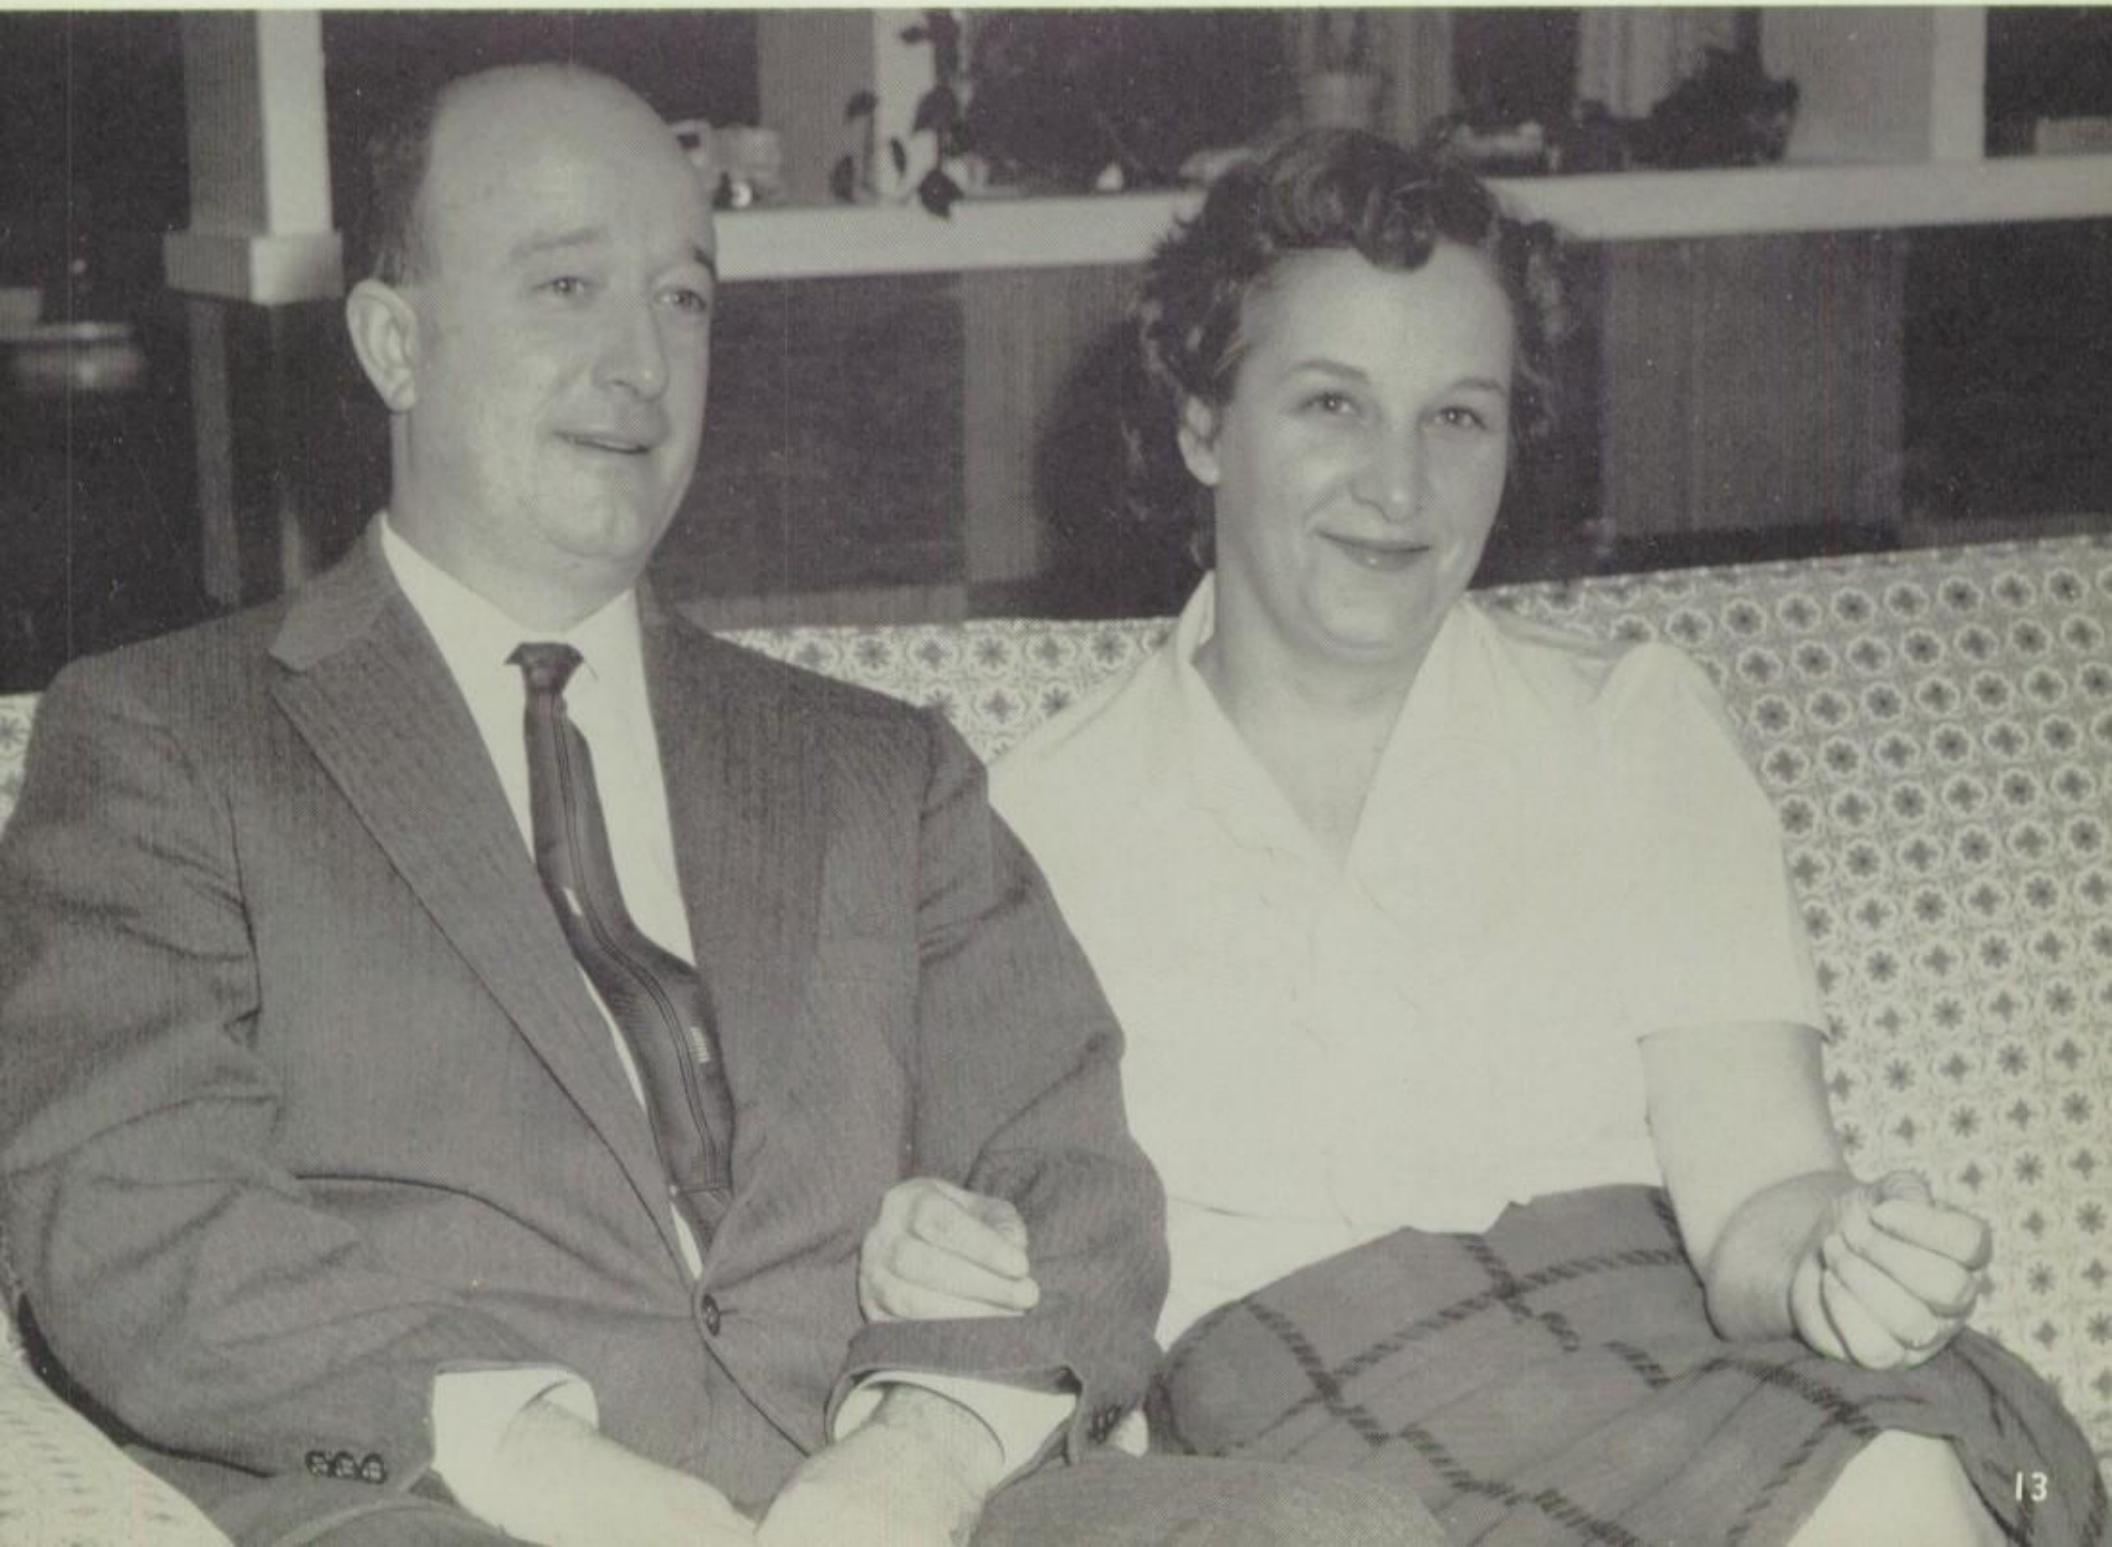

"The old must make way for the new." Washington School (above) and Jefferson School (below) have had to follow that rule, as had the Franklin School (not pictured). But each of the buildings has its own particular need and use in other areas of community life.

AND THE PRINCIPAL AT HOME.

Mr. Pugh, our principal, and his family come to us from the northeastern part of the state. They reside in Terrace Park on Washington Avenue. The principal's day is quite a full one, and we can attest to the fact that this is no exception with Mr. Pugh when we stop to think of how long it took us to make an appointment to see him. He and Mrs. Pugh have, in their short time with us, become an integral part of our school community.

THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

is guided this year by Mrs. Burnett, President; Mrs. Judd, Vice President; Mrs. Steiner and Mrs. Ruehlmann, Secretaries; and Mrs. Hutcheson, treasurer. As we see below, they are discussing another worth-while project to present at the next meeting (and it looks as if it is going to be a successful one, too).

WAITING...

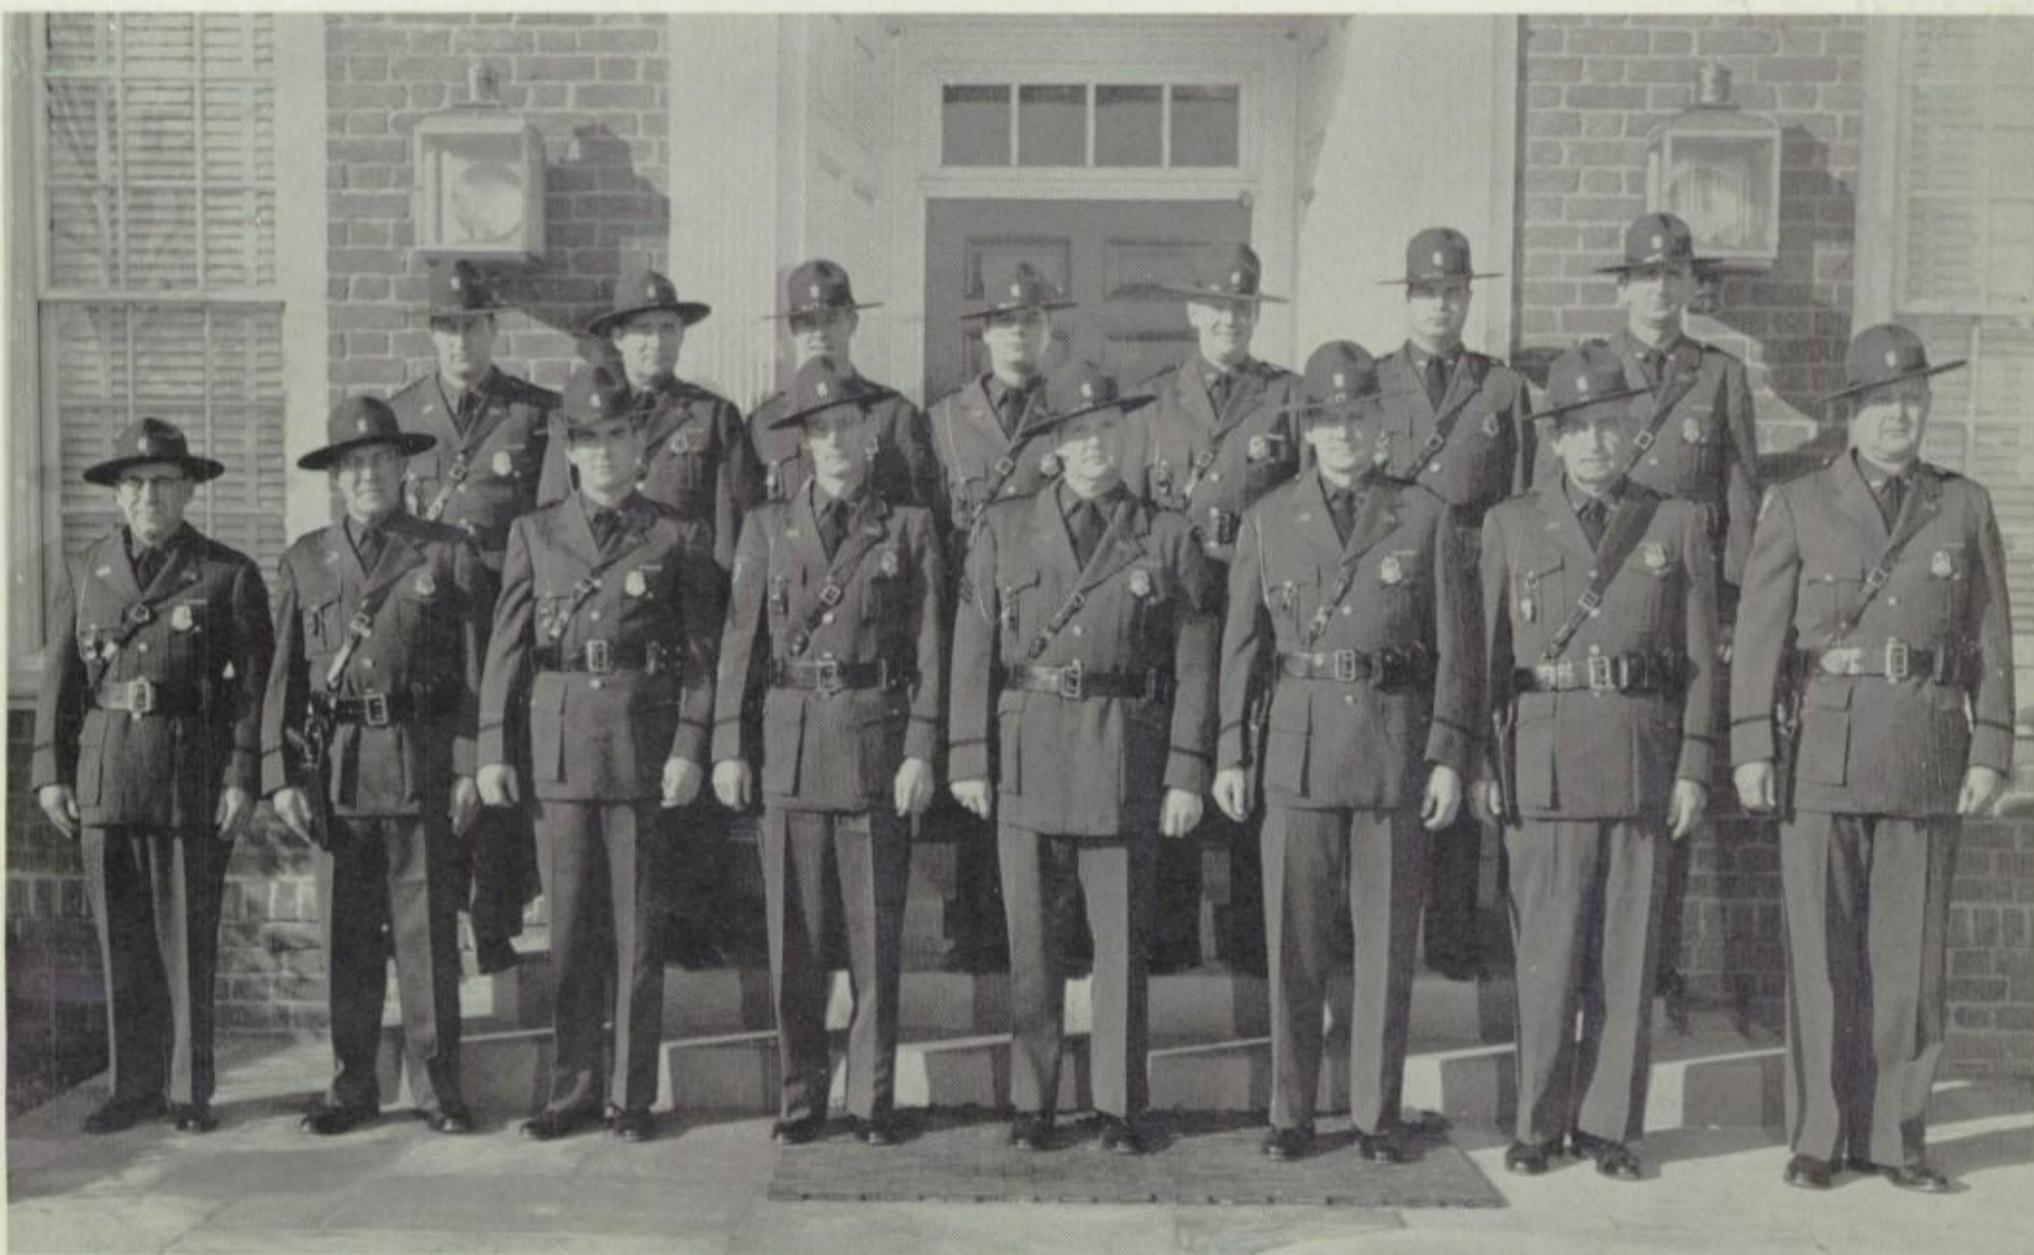

WORKING!

These men, pictured below, are familiar to many of us (and for various reasons!). We are indebted to them for the valuable assistance they give at the evening games, programs, and events at school when parking becomes a problem. They make our community a safer place in which to live. The charter which the Rangers had entitled them to serve any place in the state of Ohio, not just in the Village. Time would not permit this, but it does give us an idea of the distinction of our Village police force.

— o o o —

We want to draw the curtain on this thematic introduction by quoting some words of Robert Louis Stevenson:

"We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell; for the love that unites us; for the peace accorded us this day; for the hope with which we expect the morrow; for the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies that make our lives delightful; for our friends in all parts of the earth, and our friendly helpers in this foreign isle.

Give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind. Spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies. Give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, loyal and loving one to another."

A year of accomplishments and losses, a year of victories and defeats has ended. The faculty has shared with us in all of these; they have pointed to the way and guided us along it. Even when we did not heed their direction and their guidance, we felt a deep sense of gratitude for what our teachers were striving to do for we realize they have the welfare of the students uppermost in their minds.

SENIOR CELEBRITIES

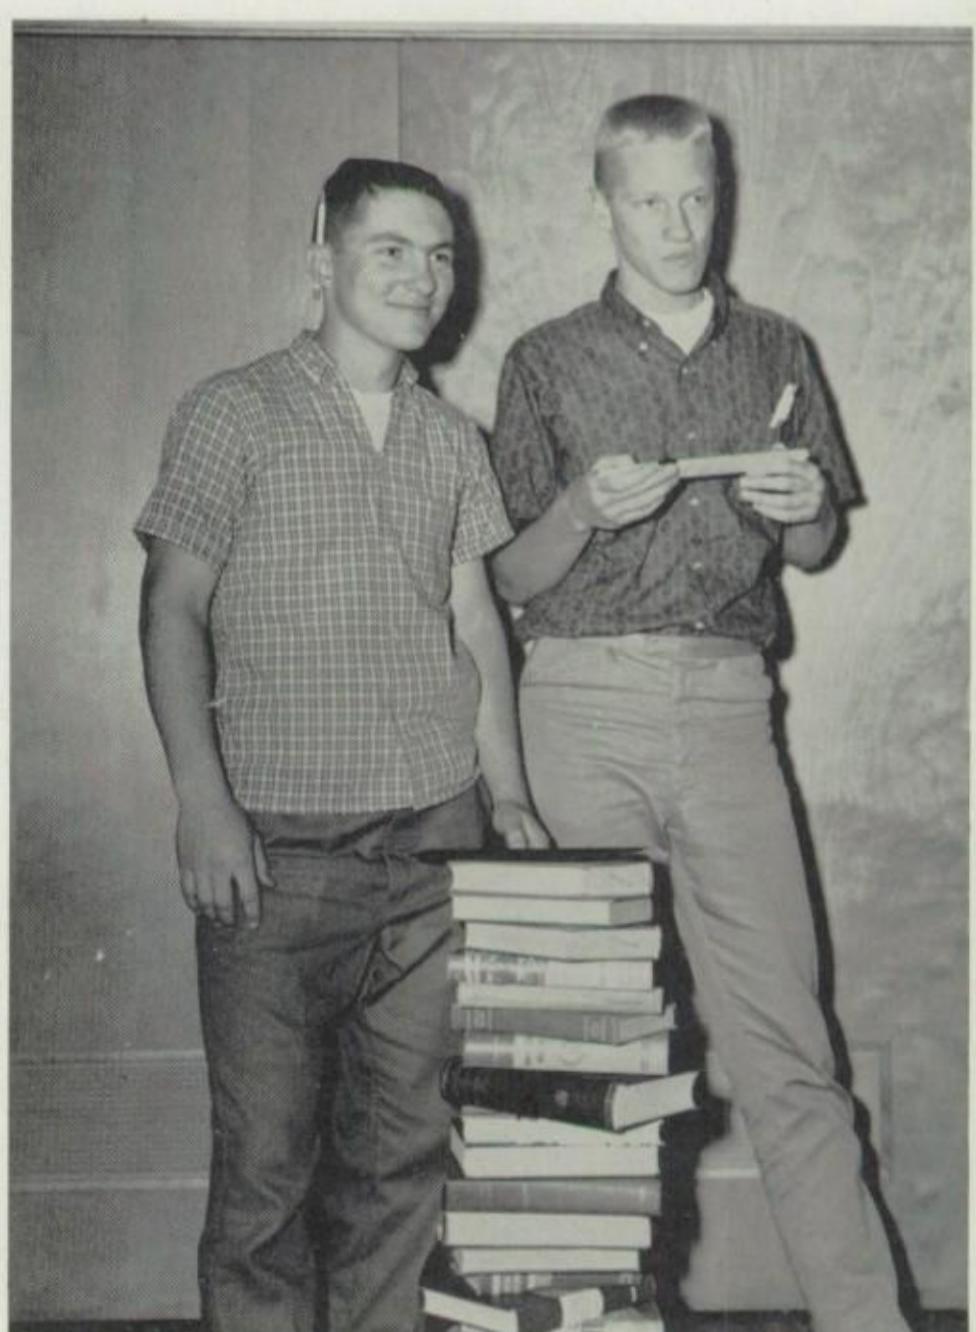

Leading the Senior Class this year were: Lynnette von Hedemann, class secretary; Page Busken, treasurer; Dave McLennan, president; Beth Papesch, vice president.

Paul Stephan, proving himself very versatile, was chosen Indian Hill's athlete of the year, and was also a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Test.

Margaret Roberts, Janice Tanner and Lynne Drake were high scorers on the National Spanish Exam.

This stack of books represents only a fraction of what had to be studied by Paul Stephan, left, to become Valedictorian of the Class of '60, and for Bill Moore to be Salutatorian.

Roberta Hair and Bill Hollenbeck represented our school at a luncheon in honor of National Armed Forces Day.

SENIOR CELEBRITIES

Our basketball stars made this one of the best years for Indian Hill. Paul Stephan, Eastern Hills All-Stars and Honorable Mention City All-Stars; Dale Peter, Honorable Mention League; Garth Bair, League All-Stars; Dave McLennan, Honorable Mention League.

Bill Hollenbeck and Bob McMillan rated as Eastern Hills League All-Stars for football. Bob also made Honorable Mention on the Post-Times Star City All-Stars.

Bill Moore and Karl Robe represented Indian Hill at the World Affairs Institute this year. Bill won the TIME magazine award for his high score on a test given nationally to high school seniors.

Johannah DeCamp and Lynnette von Heddemann were honored with the Majorette Awards.

Chosen by her fellow band members and approved by higher authorities, Betsey Bellows was presented with the National John Philip Sousa Award for excellent band performance.

At the end of the Football season, Bob McMillan and Don Kline were chosen the honorary captains of the Varsity Football Team.

The 1960 Senior Class Play, "Cheaper By The Dozen," was presented on February 5 and 6, under the direction of Mr. William P. Kincaid. The story revolved around Mr. Gilbreth and his saving waste motion in his family of a dozen dutiful d'Einstiens. The amateur thespians with the devoted aid of Theresa, the floppy-eared dog, made the play a success.

SOME MORE OF THE "DOZEN"

Gosh, it's great what college can do for a fellow!

Guess which one is the REAL efficiency expert? (You're right!)

A dog's life is a hard life!

"Father" is forever campaigning for some project—the project is always for someone else to work on and finish.

"Kibitzers" or "aides-de-camp"???

There's never a dull moment in our home—twelve children see to that!

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The 1960 Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Alms Hotel. The dance was preceded by a buffet dinner. The dancers were entertained by the Keynotes.

At the magic hour of twelve o'clock Bob Miller, the junior class president, crowned Donna Campbell Queen of the Prom. The Queen crowned Jeff Burdsall as King. Each of the elected escorts crowned the attendants of the royal court. The attendants, Nonnie Steer, Janice Tanner, Leila Johnson, and Nancy Bell, danced with their escorts, Page Busken, Dave Binstadt, Dale Peter, and Paul Stephan while the band played "Moonlight in Vermont."

After the dance a church service was held by the Rev. Luther Tucker and the Rev. Paul Vandergriff. Students then boarded busses for Chataqua for bowling, skating and breakfast.

The "royal party" pauses long enough to pose for the roving photographer. Prom night always sees the King and Queen and their court "making merry."

This picture proves that a king and queen can be young, fun-loving, gay, lovely and handsome.

"Waltz me around again, dearie!" What does Frank see over his shoulder?

And now we must leave, the royal carriage awaits!

Satisfied with himself.

OBSERVATIONS

The usual noon hour rush.

On to classes we must go, we must go . . .

The school busses have not arrived yet.
The deluge cometh!

OLYMPIC DAY

All was fine—
A few clouds—
Games continued—
A clap of thunder—
The skies opened up—
"The rain came"—
Back to Study Hall!

A familiar sight—
Busses in a row—
Waiting for the signal "GO"
THEN . . .
Rev up the motors—
Throw it in gear—
There's the sign—
"All clear"

BETSEY BELLows is the surprised, but pleased, winner of the John Philip Sousa Award for 1960.

MORE CLASS PLAY

EPILOGUE

Last year the class of 1960 presented "Gramercy Ghost," a broadway production of 1951. In spite of the ragings of the elements, rehearsals were held, and the big show crashed the Indian Hill box office on the 13th and 14th of March. The play was directed by Mr. William P. Kincaid, ably assisted by Janice Tanner, production manager.

"GRADUATES OF '63"

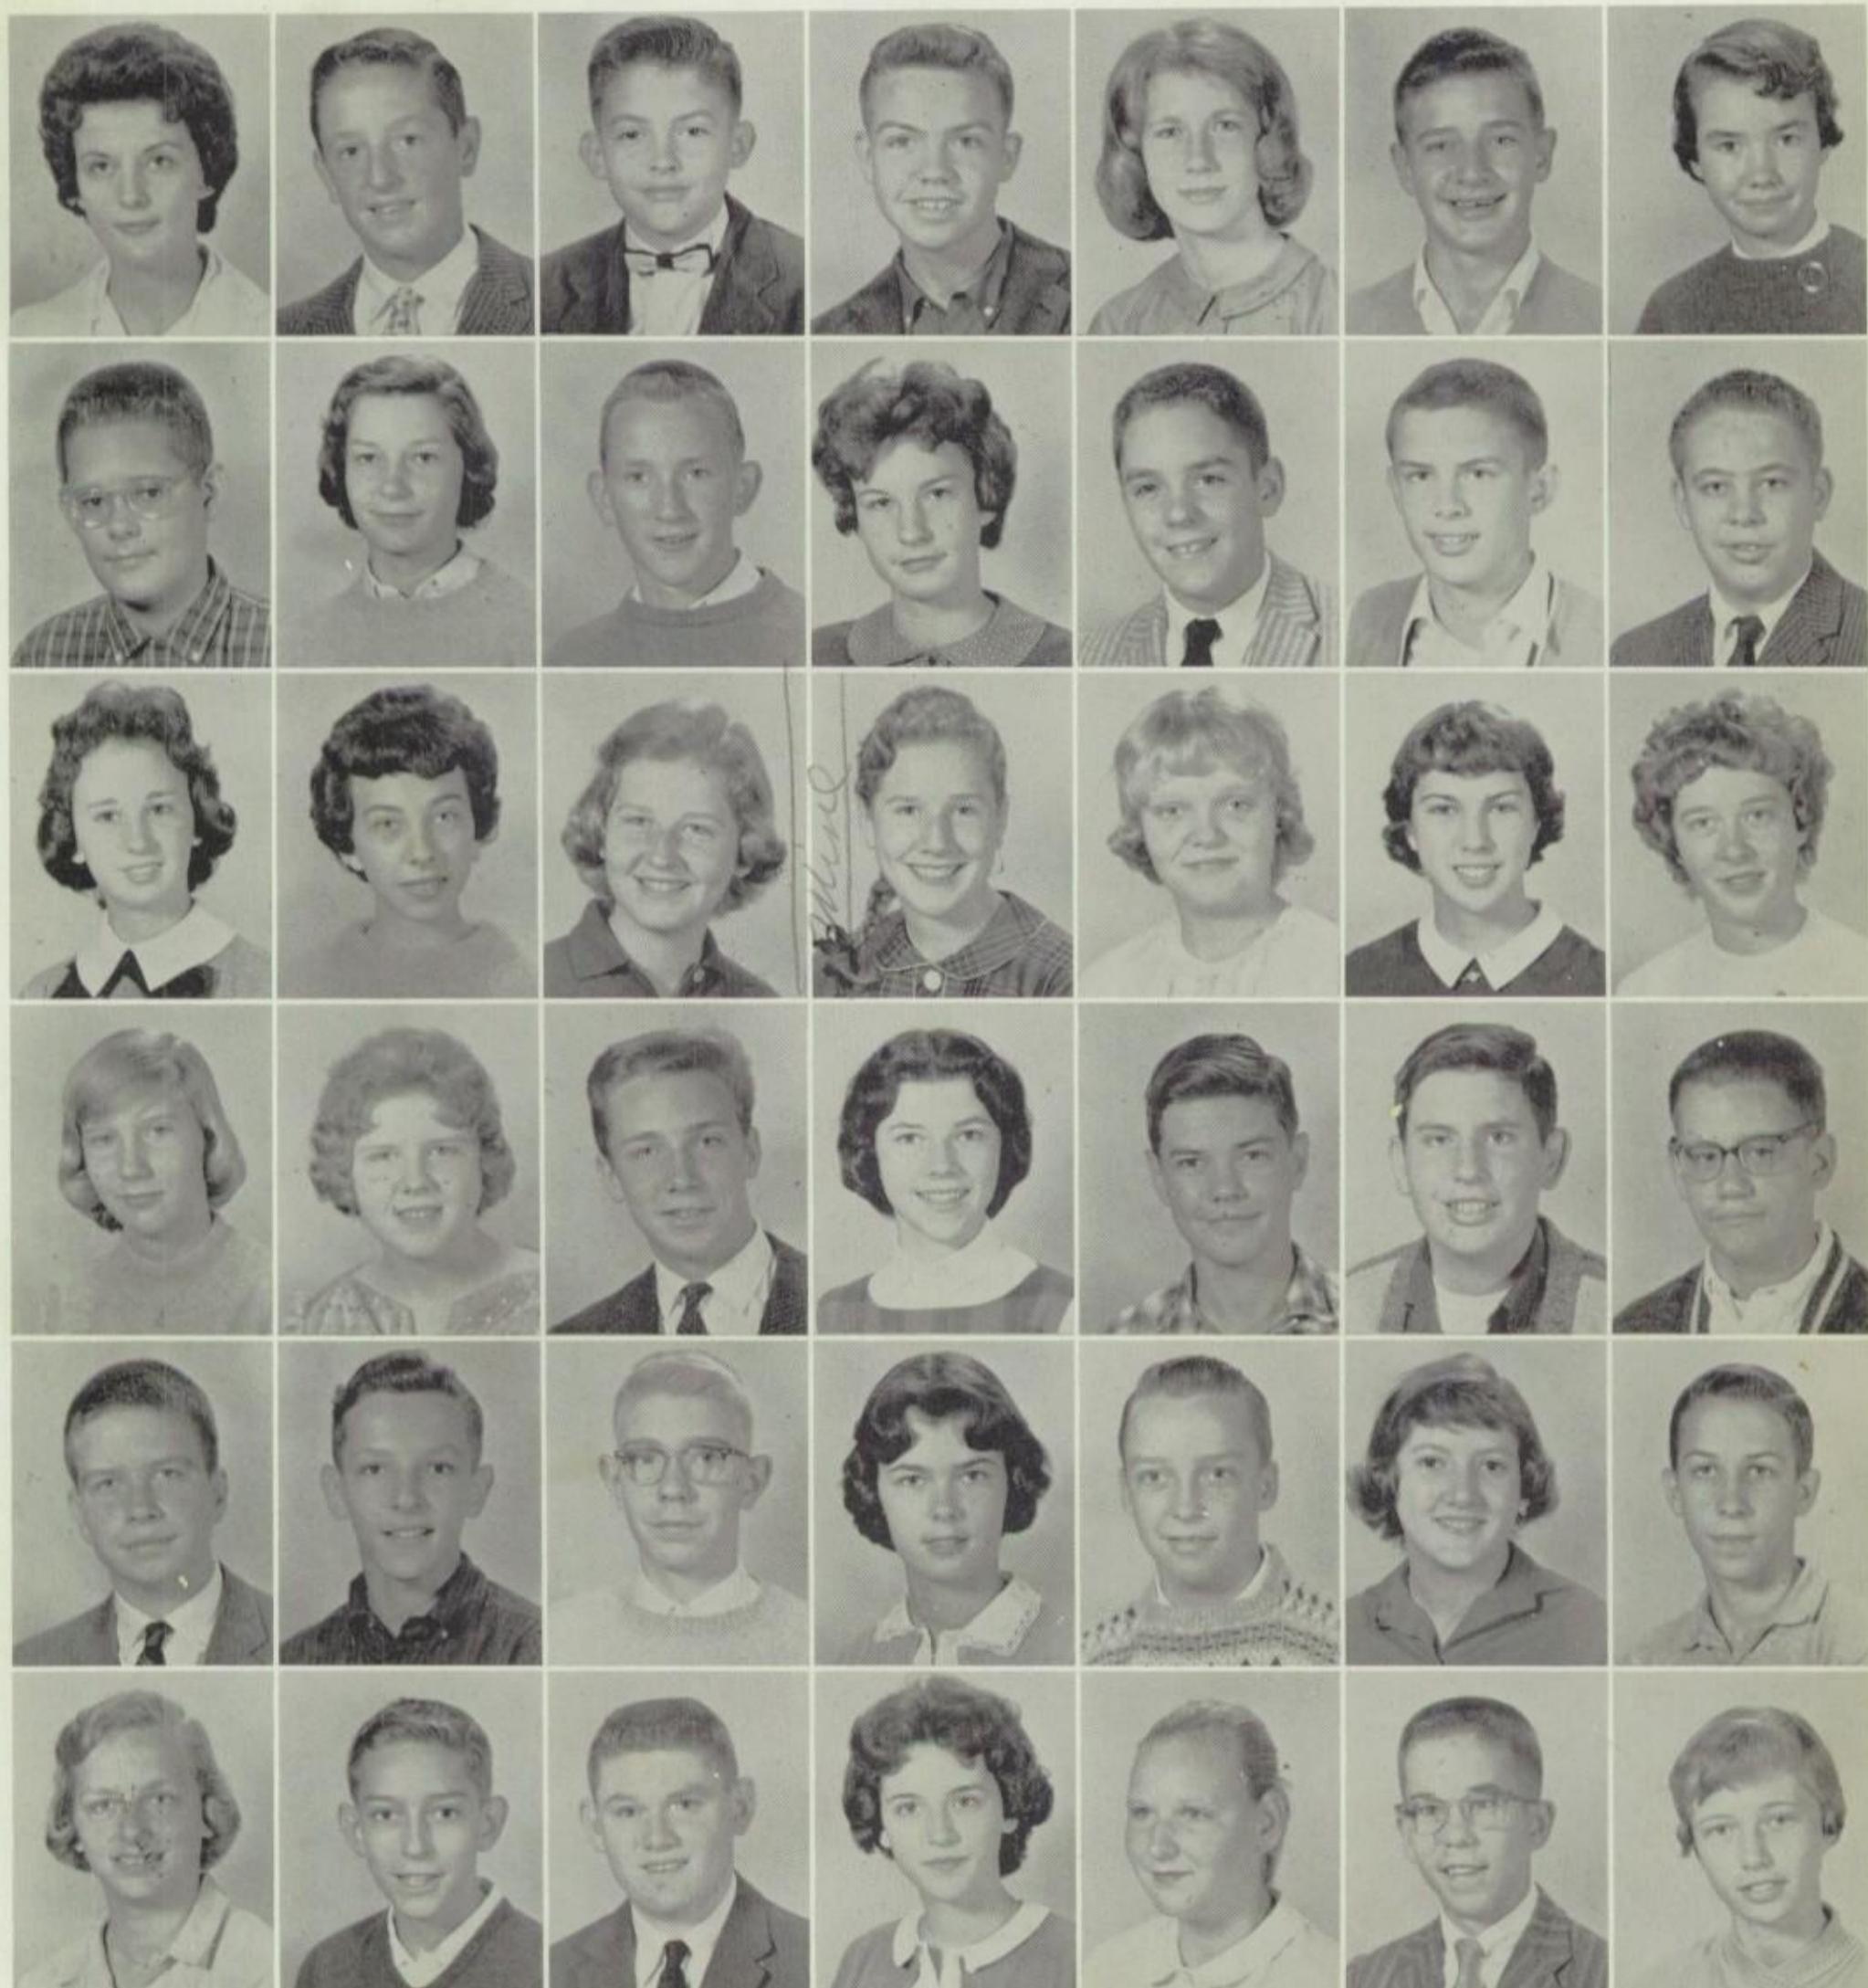

OFFICERS: Dan Tarkington, Denny Murphy, Ed Overtree, Bill vonHedman.

Ours is the largest freshman class in the history of I.H.H.S. (the graduates of '63). We feel quite fortunate in having a number of extra-curricular activities which may be participated in and work toward the goal of receiving the letter award and recognition.

"But all play and no work" . . . We may work for perfect scores on scholarship tests, and compete with each other in making the honor roll. Since it is becoming more important that young people have high academic records, the freshman class is trying to keep our educational standards and averages high. We realize that in doing this we shall make better citizens wherever we live, and be able to make our country a better one in which to live.

Officers: Bill Minturn, Ed Steiner, Don Walker, Carol Wolfe.

The eighth grade is no longer the youngest class in the high school building, and we are the first class to be able to say that. Also, we are the first eighth grade class to participate in the newly-formed Junior High Football team. The two major extracurricular activities of the year were dances, one before Christmas was given for the seventh grade, and one in May which we called our graduation dance.

SEVENTH GRADE

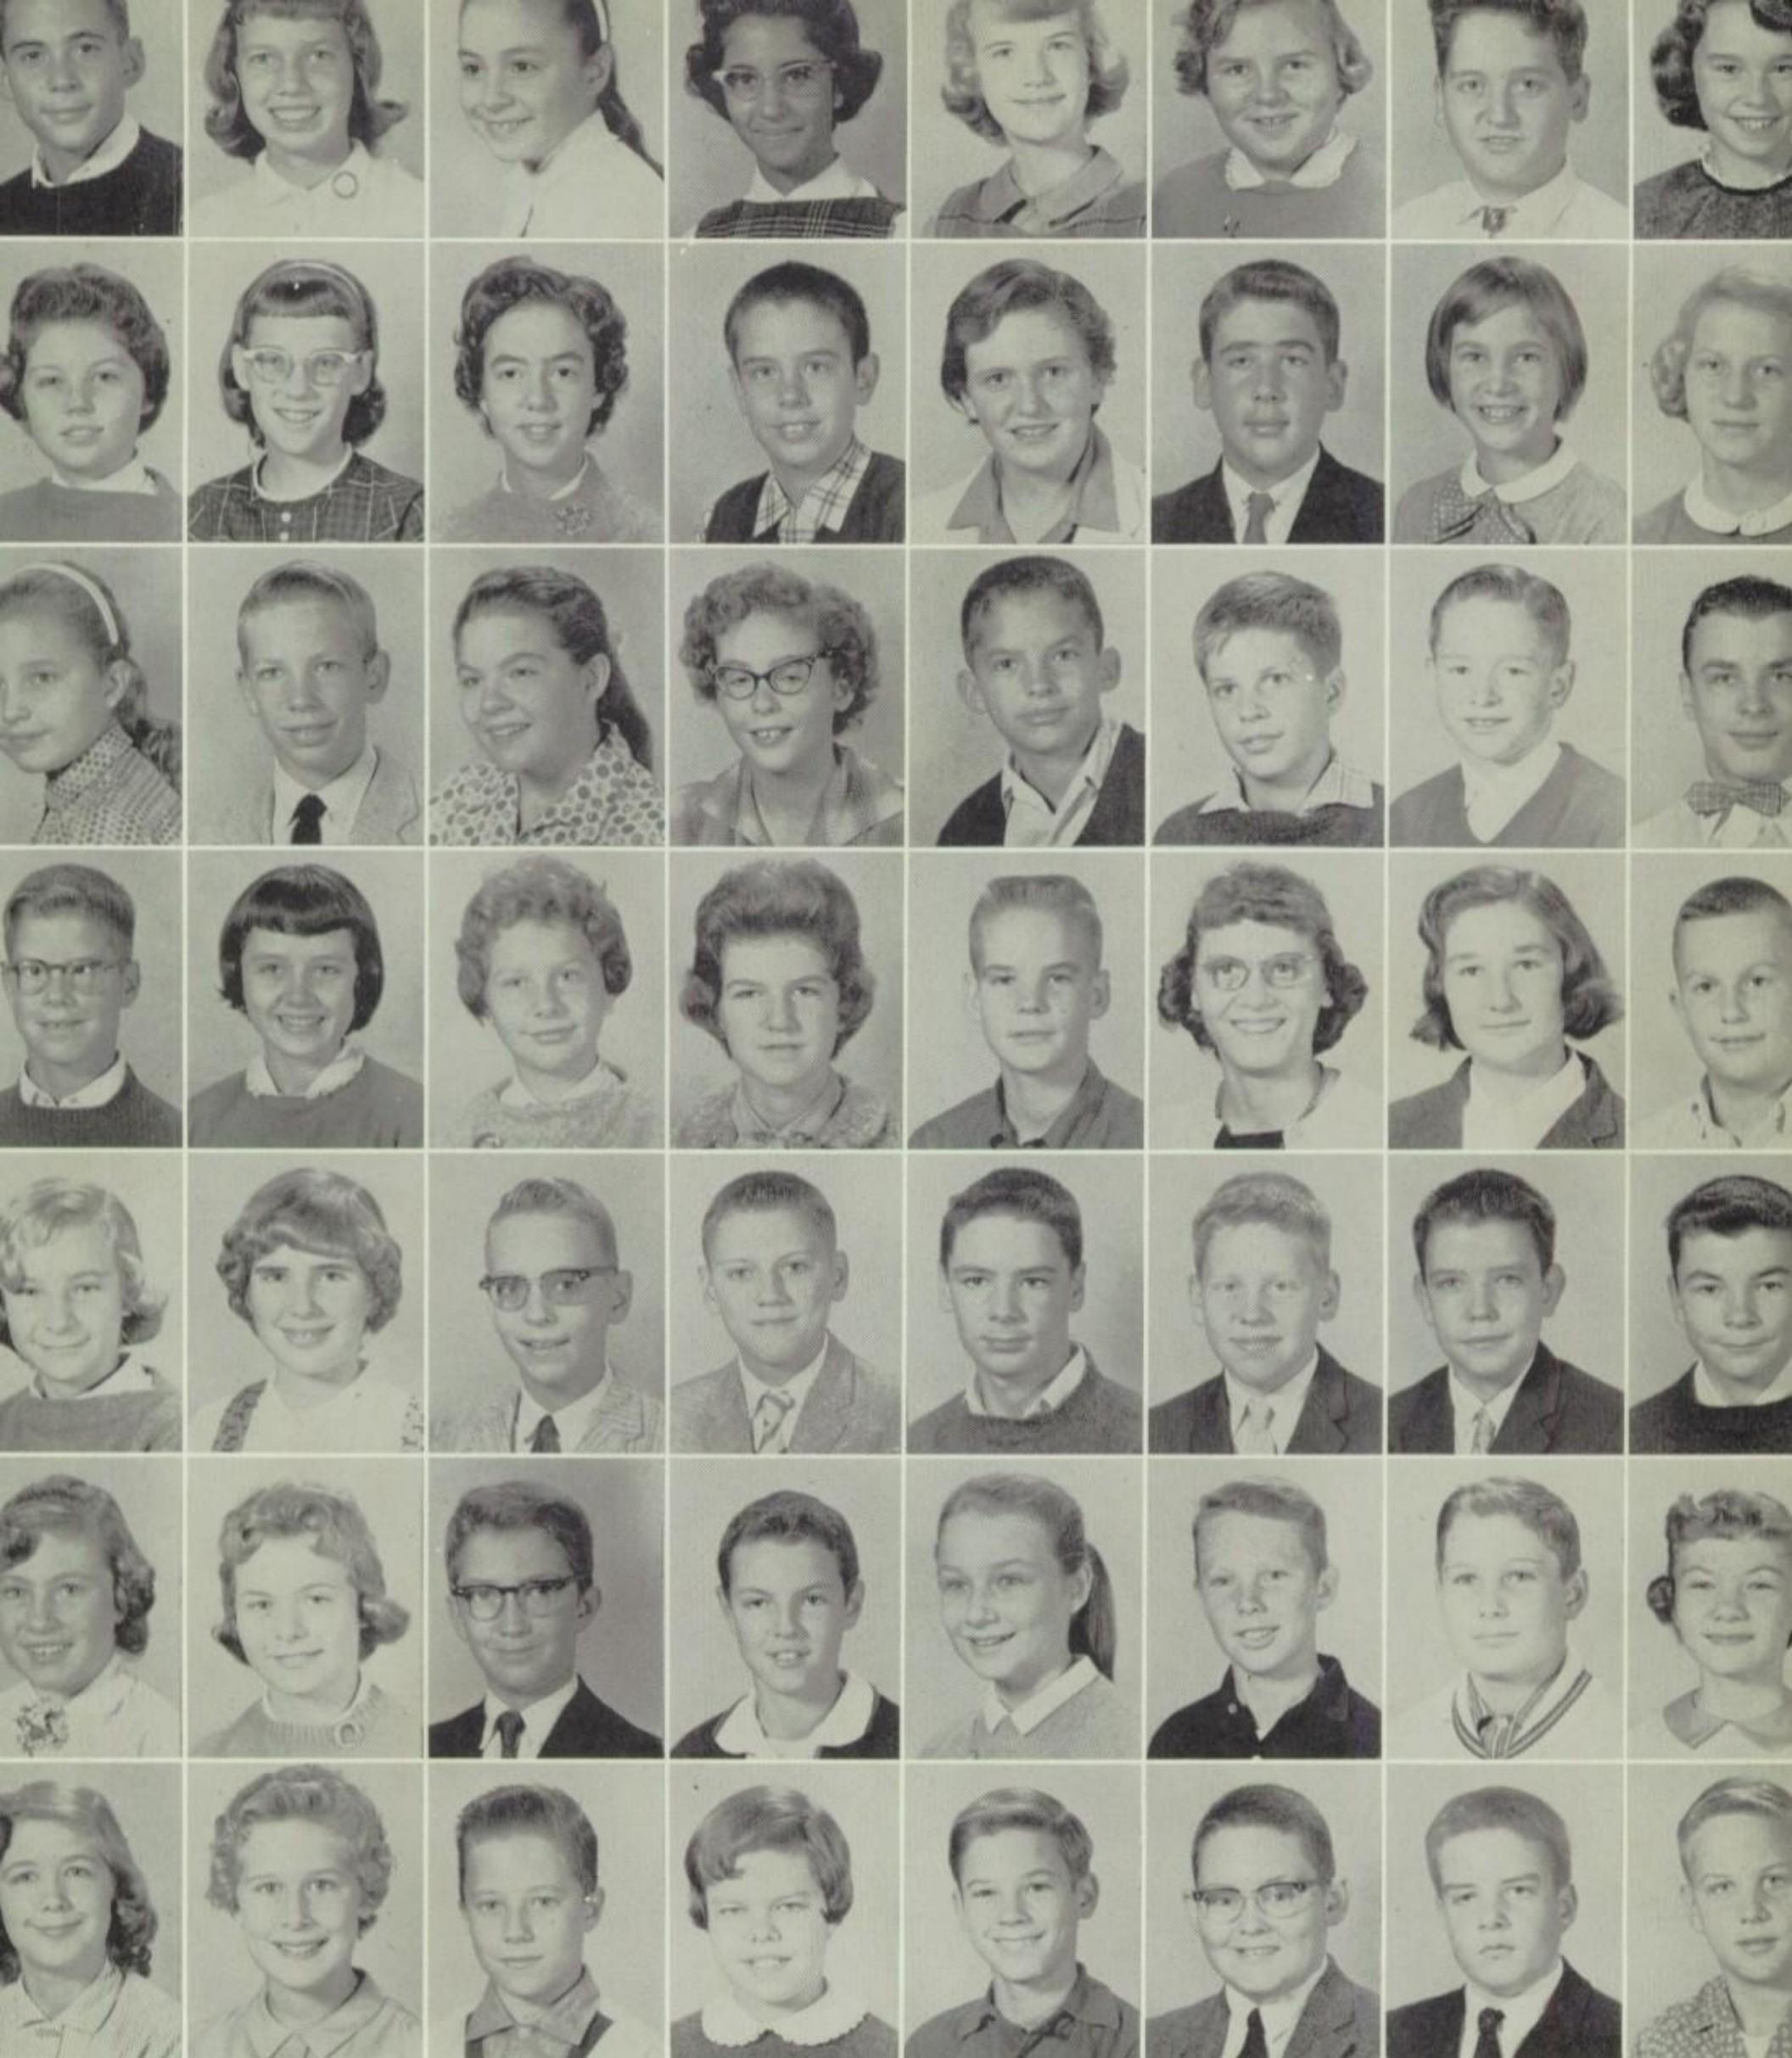

Michele Connor, Joe Camp, Silas Skidmore, and Julie Doscher.

That in-between age: too young to be called high school students and too old to be part of the elementary school . . . we make up a very important part of the junior high school. Ours is the first seventh grade to attend school in the high school building, and we are proud of it.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"THE REMARKABLE INCIDENT AT CARSON CORNERS"

ROW 1: Bonnie Insprucker, Susie Coffman, Georgia Finnigan, Jeri Ivins, Sandra Van Der Veer, Kathy Stiess. ROW 2: Barbara Braatz, Wanda DeBra, Rusty Jeffers, Kay Benckenstein, Tina Ford, Judy Drosch, Barbara Wright, Mary Camp. ROW 4: Mike Baker, Frank Robinson, Bob Slone.

The class of 1961, in presenting "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners," set a new pace in drama at Indian Hill. They gave a serious production in which a high school class took into their own hands the murder trial of a man they believed to have killed intentionally one of their friends. The play, under the able direction of Mr. William P. Kincaid, was given in the high school auditorium on April 1 and 2.

FAMOUS UNDERCLASSMEN

Bob Miller and Kay Benkenstein were chosen from the Junior Class to represent Indian Hill at Boys' and Girls' State this summer.

These four juniors were running for the position of Student Council President, from left to right, Tom Graham, Bill Walker, Charles Hartman and Bob Slone. Tom Graham was elected.

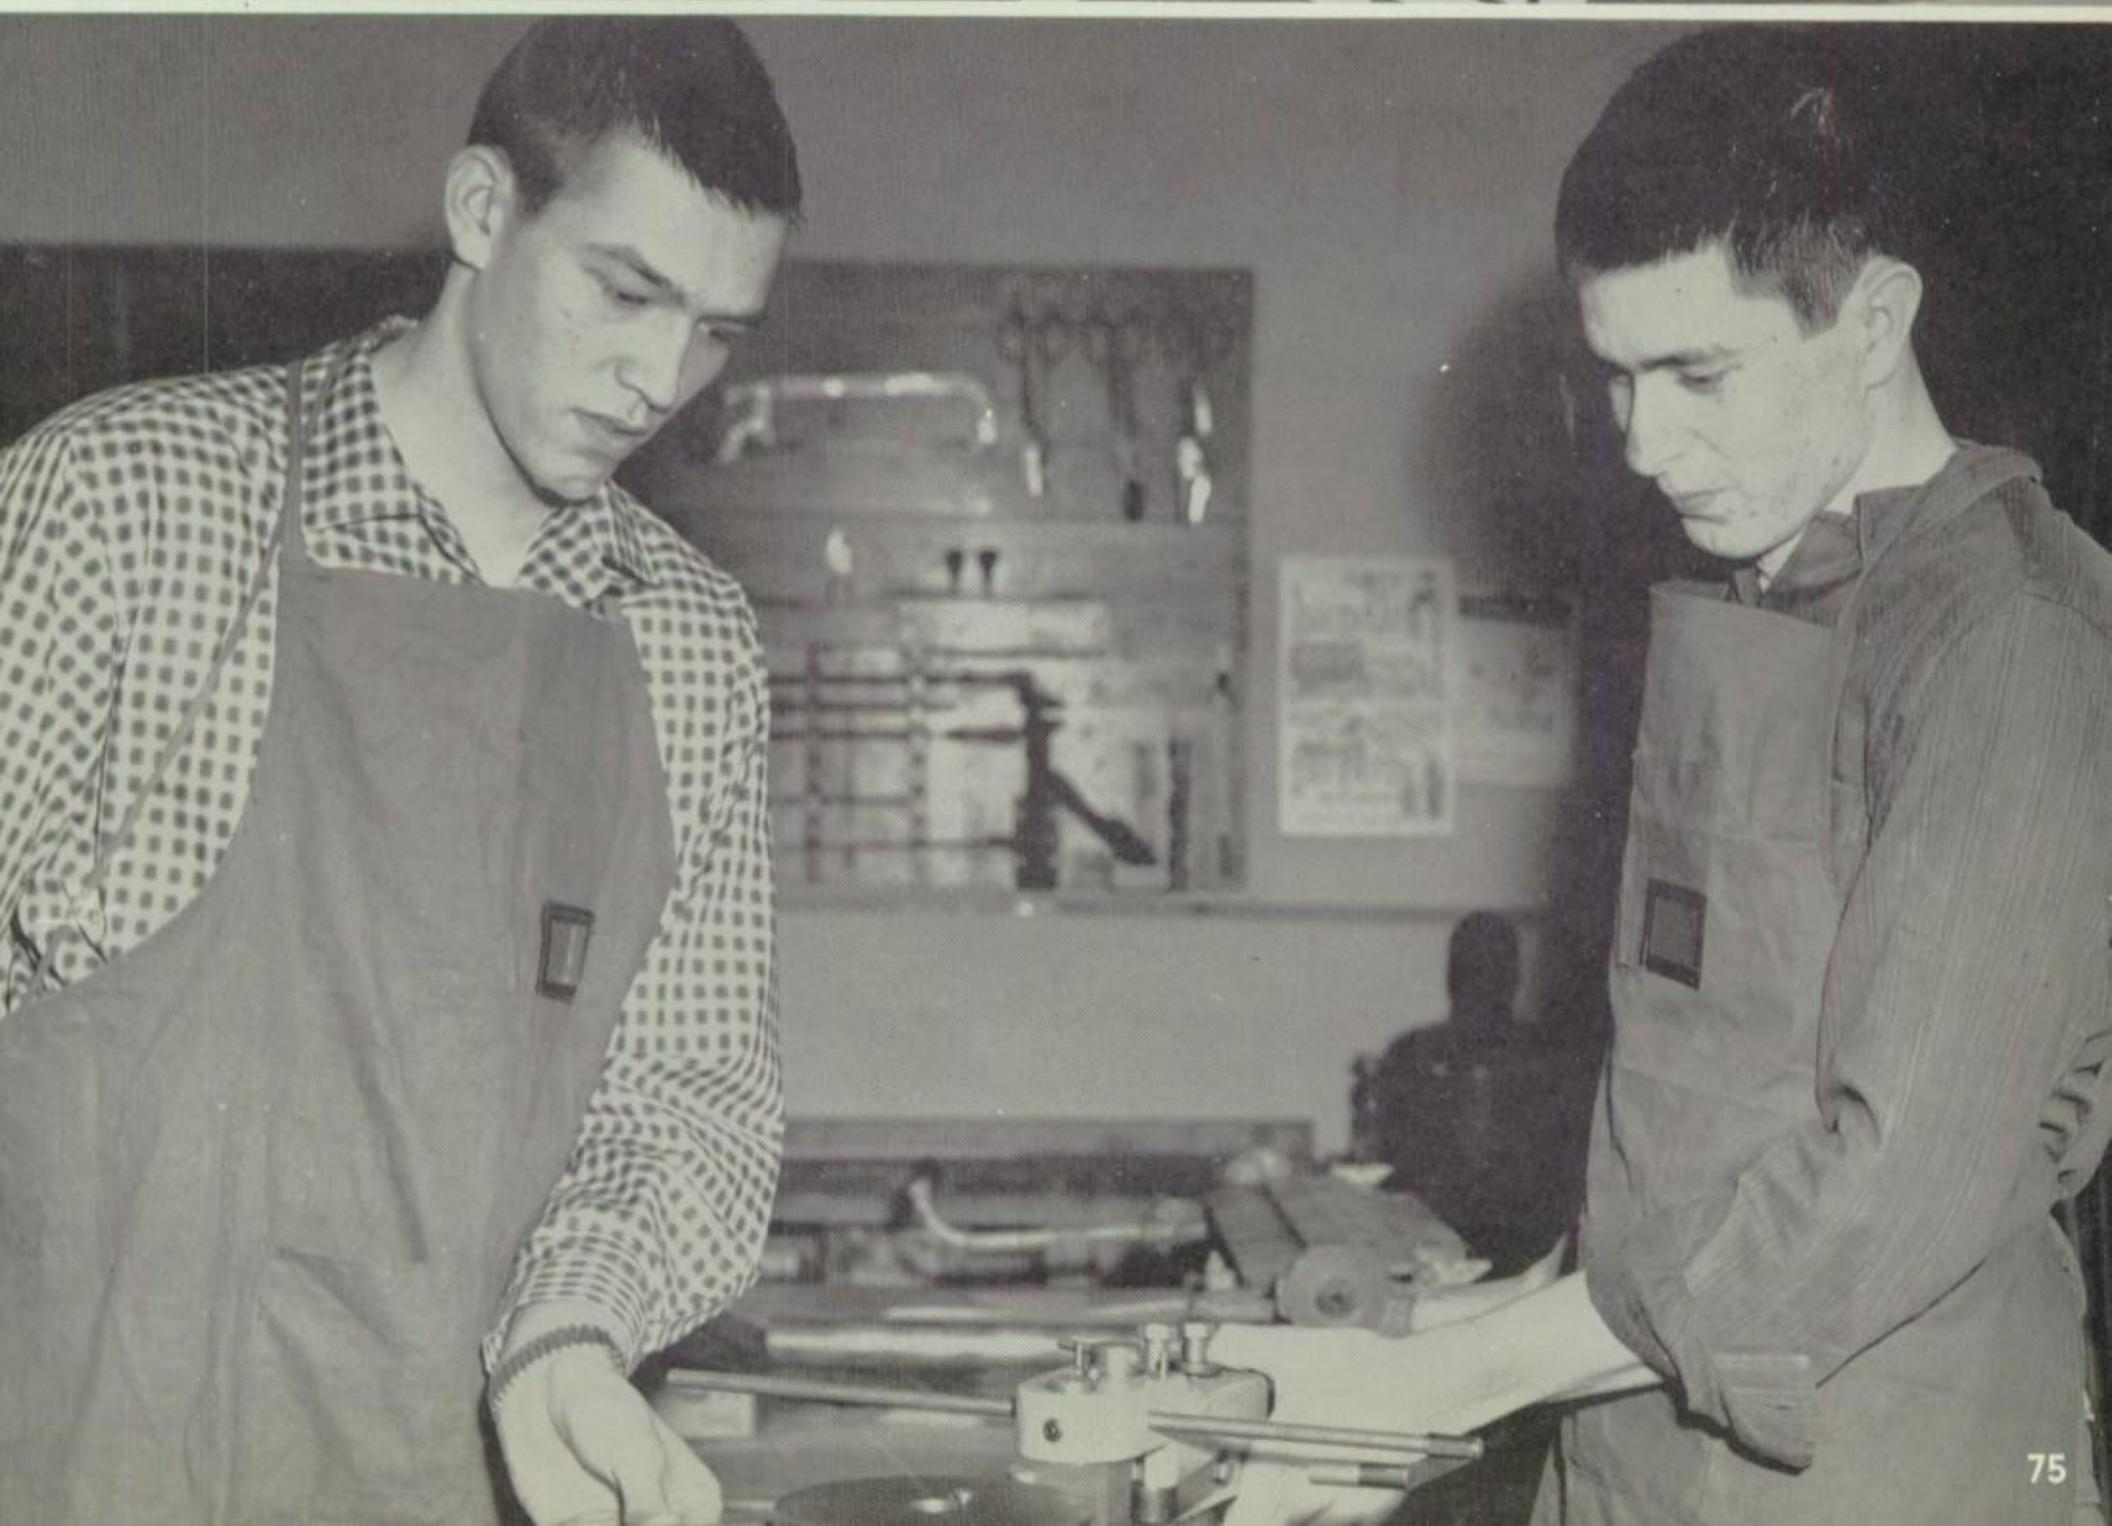

Annette Schubert, Carol Wolf and Carol Schutte were chosen as good citizens for Sons of American Revolution Award. One person from each eighth homeroom was elected.

Judy Drosch of the Junior Class won the American Legion Essay Contest for her essay on "Why I Am Proud to Be An American."

This year's hard-working annual staff has again triumphed over the ravages of time and deadlines and come out with what we think is another superior LEGEND. The 1960 LEGEND is a trip in miniature through our school year, making stops along the way for homecomings, plays, club meetings and other activities. The conductors and engineers on the trip (the LEGEND Staff) having spent countless hours of devoted work, are proud to step back and say, "Here it is . . . the biggest and the best ever!"

A Lesson We Would Like to Pass On To You:
Each person must do his part, big or small, for the total undertaking to be a success.

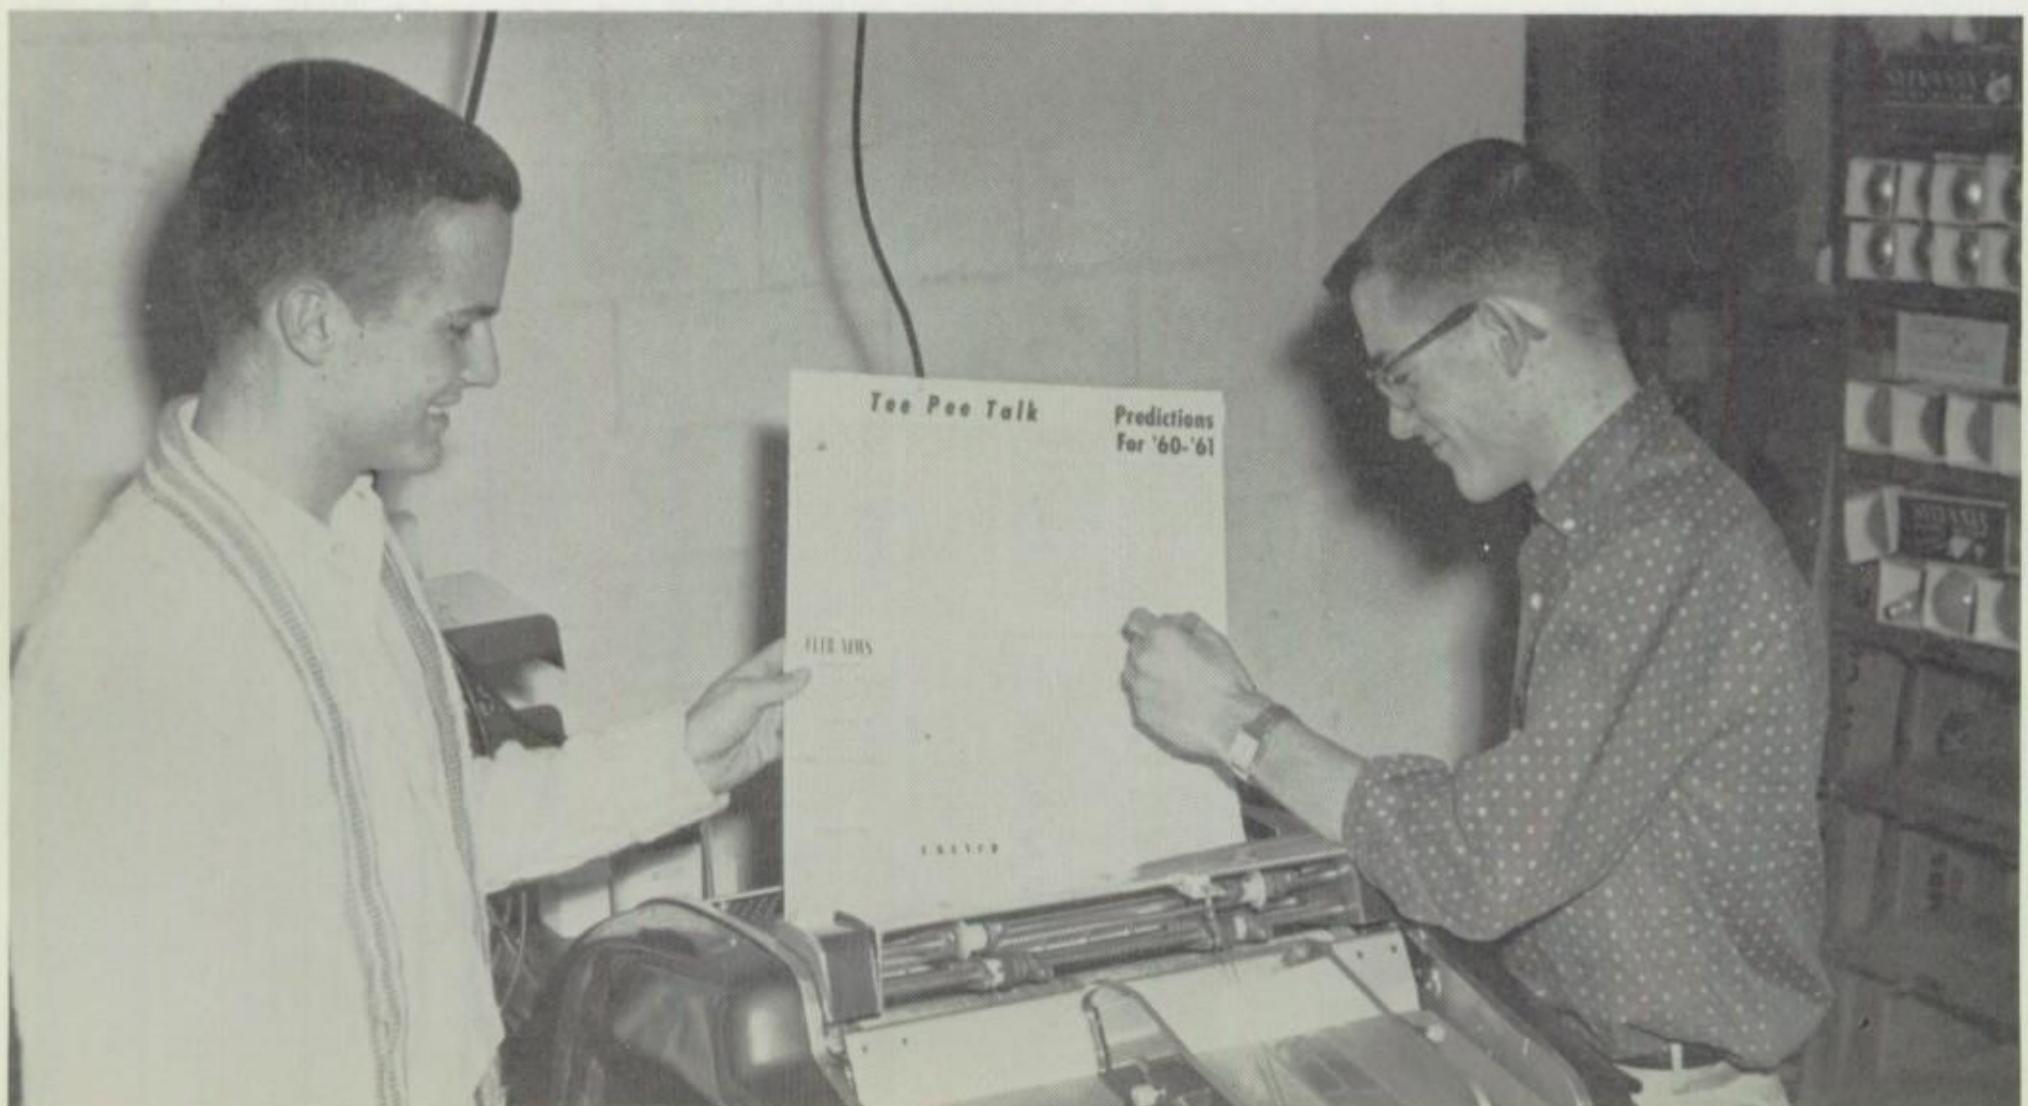

QUILL AND SCROLL

The Indian Hill High School chapter of the Quill and Scroll is a strictly honorary organization whose members are selected on the basis of their accomplishments in the field of journalism. These students have displayed outstanding journalistic ability while working on the Legend or the Chieftain during their high school years. The club holds no meetings and is not actively engaged in school functions, but its members can be proud of the position they have attained.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, which is the governing body of the students and link which binds the administration and the student body more closely together, meets once a month to discuss and work out solutions for the many and varied problems which arise.

CHIEFTAIN

1959-1960 has been a milestone in the history of the Chieftain. After improving the mimeographed version of our school's monthly paper to the stage of "top notch," our restless journalists began to search for further improvements. This year we are publishing our first editions of a PRINTED Chieftain. This is also improved by the use of photographs, and is making the Chieftain a more professional paper.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The members of the Indian Hill National Honor Society can look back upon this school year with a feeling of great accomplishment. The organization began the year by founding the new National Junior Honor Society composed of seventh and eighth graders under the leadership of Mr. Oren Mollenkopf. A movie which the club sponsored at a local theater provided funds for the establishment of this group.

Midway through the school year, club members participated in a nationwide vote to select a new member for the National Hall of Fame; their choice was Thomas Edison. In February members of both honor societies attended the annual initiation and reception ceremony held in the school cafeteria.

As the school year drew to a close, probationary members were inducted into both societies at a school assembly program. These are students that the society feels have shown outstanding character, leadership, scholarship and service during their high school years. Next year the two honor societies will function separately as their year of association comes to an end.

NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

ROW 3: Carol Wolf, Elaine Smith, Worthy Tuttle, Annette Schubert, Lois Dorman, Lynn Robinson.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

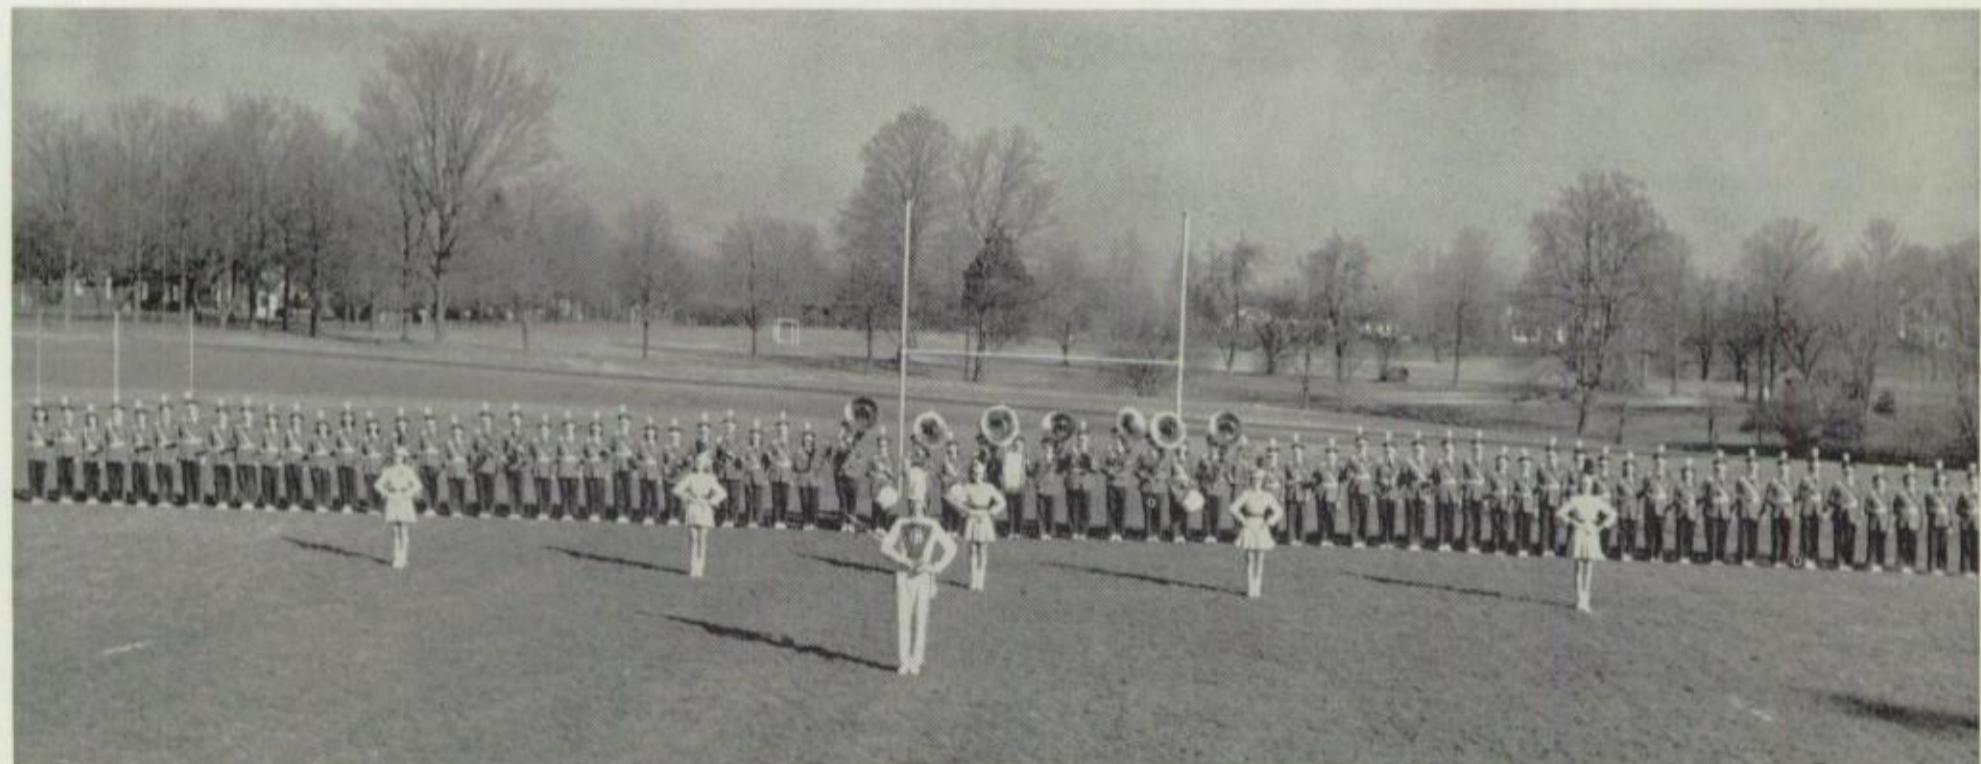

This year the band added many new accomplishments to its list of previous achievements. A variety of shows was presented by the "Marching Hundred" between halves at the football games. These included "A Salute to the British Isles," "A Salute to the Armed Forces" and a "Circus Show." Participation in the Miami Band Day program and in the University of Cincinnati Homecoming Parade added to our list of activities.

Mr. R. Earl Snapp took the baton from Mr. Fenton during the second semester and became temporary instrumental instructor. Mr. Fenton was granted a leave of absence to further his education.

Our symphonic band made an excellent showing at the Miami District Solo and Ensemble Contest, and four entrants made high ratings in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest at Dayton.

The highlight of the year was the spring concert which was directed by Mr. Snapp. The various bands, from the beginners' band to the senior band, participated. A unique part of the program was the graduated-in-difficulty arrangements of Sibelius' "Finlandia" which each of the bands played, culmination with the arrangement for the symphonic band.

DRUM MAJOR AND MAJORETTES

It takes more than good looks to be a successful drum major or majorette. The recipe for such success just might include that ingredient, but other quite necessary portions of vitality, timing, practice and showmanship must be added. The six students (shown at left) have displayed the correct blending of all these ingredients during 1959-1960.

JUNIOR HIGH BAND

WOODWIND ENSEMBLE

Musical talent, harmony, dignity, precision, snappy appearance—all of these descriptive terms are applicable to the two groups pictured above. Their performances at home or away have made all of us justly proud of them. Appreciation for the work which is needed for many of our activities is felt but not shown or spoken, and we take this opportunity to applaud those students who participate in the co-curricular functions of our music department.

DRAMATICS CLUB

PLACES EVERYONE! This call became very familiar to the dramatics club throughout its varied activities during the '59-60 theatre season. Along with the productions for the public, the Club had monthly meetings where learning and fun were mixed together. These meetings were high-lighted by films, amateur and professional recordings, and speakers.

No, Gerald, you weren't dreaming . . . We have the pictures to prove that you were the "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

"MR. BARRY'S ETCHINGS"

The Dramatics Club's spring play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings," was presented in the high school auditorium on April 22-23 of this year. The play was a tremendous success, principally because of the fine acting and a large audience at both performances. The plot revolved around the character of Mr. Barry, an amateur counterfeiter who becomes involved with a gang of criminals in his attempts to put his money into circulation.

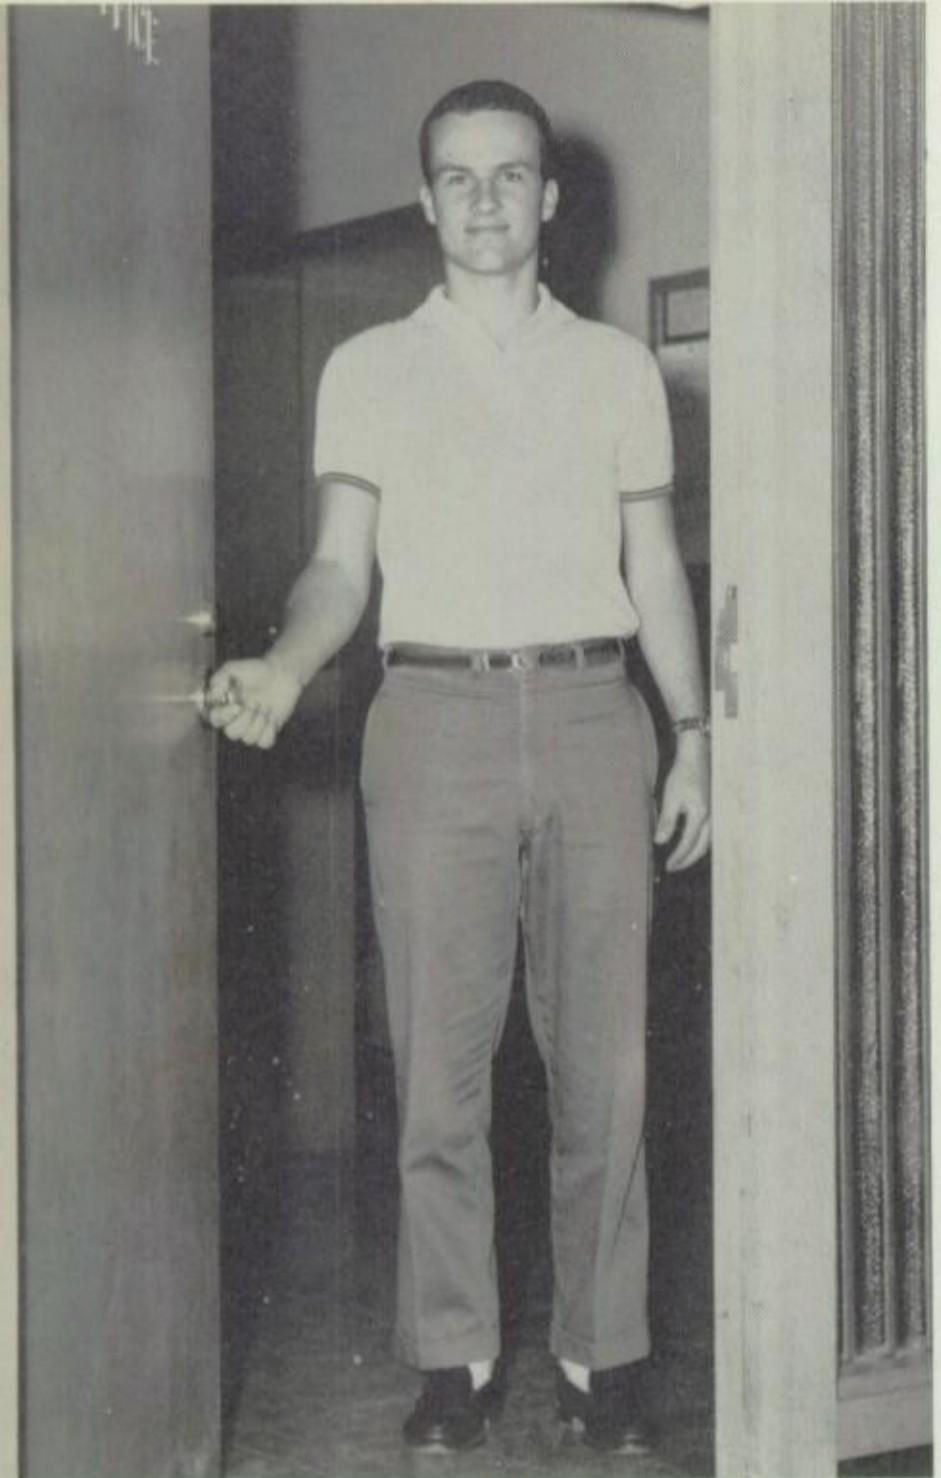

Quite often the most enjoyment for the cast of a play comes during the days and weeks of practicing. This play was no exception and the members of the cast will have fond memories to carry with them.

PRODUCTION CREW

Jerry and Dianne might be reaching for the moon, except for the third person, Ken, who is crouching most ominously behind them. Something is awry!

In May the society attended the state convention and had three state officers elected from its membership.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

The two groups pictured on this page perform necessary and valuable services for the students in our school. Our library has been enlarged in area and in number of books this year, and the library aids assist in keeping the books in "findable" order. Protecting the students as they board and leave the school busses is a big undertaking, but the boys shown below have been doing a most commendable job.

VISUAL AIDS

The room goes dark, there is a click and a soft whir and once again a visual aid helper brings a movie to the class. These assorted cameramen, disc jockeys, and recording artists are headed by Mr. Roberts who has lined up more than twenty other helpers for training. Mr. R. tells us that these students are becoming very proficient with the machines we have at present, and will be equally so with the machines which the school plans to acquire.

I.H.H.S representatives to the Junior Safety Council of Cincinnati are Dan Noelke, Dale Francis, Gayle Taylor.

Mrs. Corbett is showing four of her Home Ec. seamstresses the fine art of "cutting the garment to fit the pattern." Besides sewing, these girls are learning how to turn out tasty meals . . . which reminds us of our cooks: Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Schumacher, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Geselbracht, and Mrs. Uchtman. And below, look at those pans of succulent beef roasts.

Office secretaries are busy, too!

EVENTS OF 1959-1960:

Mr. Wm. Fenton was granted a leave of absence during the second semester to pursue his work toward the doctoral degree. Mr. Snapp replaces him for the last 20 weeks of school.

Mr. David Jones resigned as vocal teacher because of ill health. At this writing the Board of Education has chosen a replacement for him, her name not yet available.

THE BRAVES

This season has been better than any previous one since the "Braves" were organized. Season record was 4-5. Our head coach, Mr. J. Clark, and his assistant, Mr. G. Allison, are new to I.H.H.S. this year, but Mr. B. Mahan, co-assistant, returned to help build the team.

Bob McMillan and Gary Weil were the top scorers, and Bob received honorable mention in the City All-Stars. Hollenbeck, McMillan, and Sauer were included in the first string line-up of the Eastern Hills League. Kline, Taylor, Weil, Muzzo, Fibbe, Bill Mooney, and Stephan received honorable mention on the Eastern Hills League All-Stars.

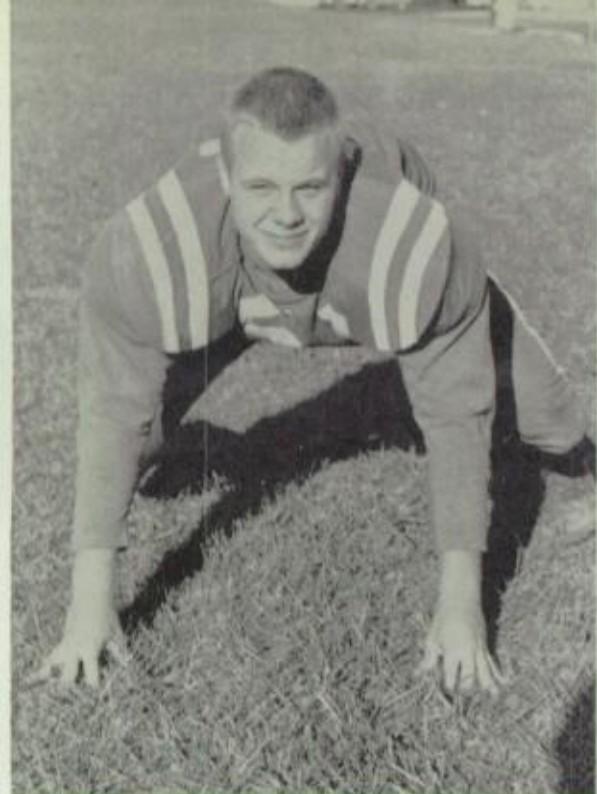

Graduation, in June, will remove a large percentage of the players from the football roster.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

Four lassies from the senior class were nominated to be queen of the football homecoming. It was hard to make the decision and cast the irrevocable vote (see why in the pictures above). The night finally arrived when the game was to be played; the float was to be unveiled; the "mystery" queen was to be seen. The band gave another of its delightful musical interludes; the theme was a "Stairway to the Stars." Sleek convertibles began arriving at the edge of the field. The queen and her entourage were, at last, to make themselves known. (Turn page!)

Hey, what happened to the ball?

Yes, he did get through.

THE BRAVES OF I.H.H.S.

It has often been said that the sure way to tell how a team is doing is to note the number of spectators at the games. This year has proved how popular our team is and has proved something else: the gymnasium just is not large enough to accommodate the number of people seeking admission to the games. A cheering crowd helps to make a winning team! Win or lose, the Braves consistently played the game well.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

The suspense mounted as Tim Fisher, master of ceremonies of the 1960 Homecoming Dance, opened the envelope containing the name of the Homecoming Queen, who had been selected from the five senior candidates: Nancy Bell, Donna Campbell, Leila Johnsen, Nonnie Steer, and Gayle Mackenzie. THE QUEEN? Miss Gayle Mackenzie!

The underclass attendants and escorts were: Juniors, Cathy Swomstedt and Bill Walker; Sophomores, Brenda Smith and Doug Guckles; Freshmen, Mary Howald and Bob Horschel.

Queen Gayle was crowned during the half-time period of the varsity game. The queen and her court reigned at the homecoming dance, Cupid's Capers, after the game.

The Junior Varsity basketball team made a fine showing in a year when many thought that they would not win a game. The boys finished the season with a record of six wins and thirteen defeats. Their sportsmanship and spirit was unsurpassed by any of the other teams.

The Freshman basketball team played a total of nine games this season. They had a record of one victory and eight defeats, while exhibiting fierce determination and an outstanding will to win.

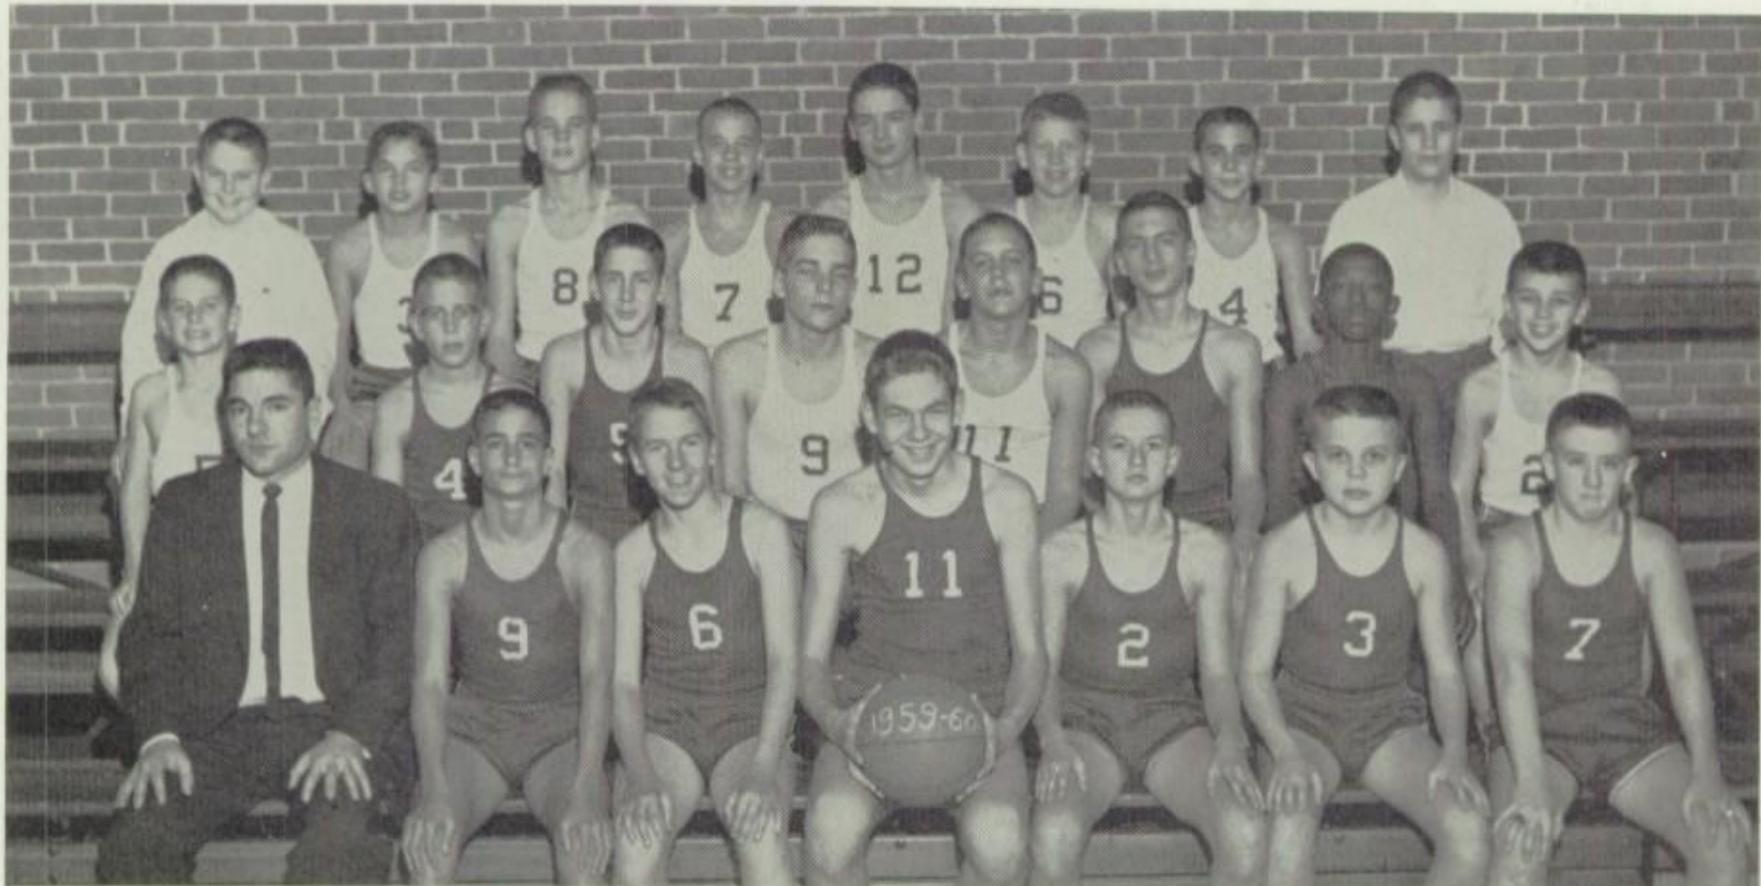

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Note of interest: In the lower picture are twelve basketball players. This has been their freshman season. Doing a little mathematical thinking, there is a total of thirty-six more years of basketball playing represented among these fellows before they complete their high school work.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

It is fun to win; it is hard to lose; it is work to practice; it is great to look forward to the day when these boys will make the varsity line-up in high school. Learning the rules, developing coordination, mastering the skills and techniques promises more and more winning seasons.

J.V. FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

Donna Derricks, Suzanne Senft, Pam Williams, Jody Bock, Nancy Burgess.

A new sport has been added to the list of extracurricular activities; it is Soccer. From this reporter's viewpoint, it must be a most fascinating game for the boys practice in all kinds of weather, . . . clear, rainy, cold, sleet. The team has made a very auspicious beginning, and promises to grow even better.

RIFLE CLUB

The Indian Hill Rifle Club is only two years old, but already it is making a name for itself. At the end of February, the Club ranked first in the Southwestern Ohio Junior Rifle League. The members of the Club compete in various matches for points, . . . which are totaled at the end of the year to determine the kinds and types of awards to be presented. Club members participated in the Sportsman Show at Cincinnati Gardens, Feb 27 and 28, by assisting in the exhibition shooting. Practice is done in the "pit" at school and on the Camp Ross Rifle Range.

VARSITY GIRLS' HOCKEY

The highlight of the season was the day Hillsdale played host to the eleven girls' hockey teams in this area. The teams were taught many new techniques by professionals. The best players from each high school team were chosen to form a single team which played the professional girls' hockey team from Dayton, Ohio.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ann Cochran, Kay Benkenstein, Joyce Keidel, Debby von Storch, Betsy Pritchett, Carol Coffman, Miss Thomas, Barbara Wright, Nancy Bell, Sharon Schwarz, Mary McCash, Beth Papesch.

So very often the girls who participate in athletic contests are overlooked in all the bright light that surrounds the various boys' athletic activities. The basketball games in which these girls (above and below) have played have shown us that agility, good sportsmanship, determination to win, and skill can be (and is) displayed by lovely girl athletes as well as brawny boy athletes.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

PEP . . . PERSONALITY . . . PULCHRITUDE

JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

FRESHMAN CHEERLEADERS

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

VARSITY TRACK

Running the race to win the contest is the aim of each of these boys, but more than that, they are learning how to run in the more serious race of life. Training and self-discipline are practiced and learned.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The Indian Hill Braves came through with another winning season this year, with eight Eastern Hills League victories and two losses. Their all-over won-lost record, including extra-league games, was 9-7.

RESERVE BASEBALL

JUNIOR HIGH BASEBALL

BOYS' TENNIS

GIRLS' TENNIS

ROW 1: Jody Bock, Joyce Keidel, Nonnie Steer. ROW 2: Holly Fry, Nancy Bell, Martha Brandt, Kathy Campbell, Lynn Murphy, Miss Thomas.

How many "wins" did the teams have? How many "losses" did the teams suffer? These questions are always asked. The tennis teams had some wins and some losses, but win or lose they had a lot of fun (particularly when game time required their leaving school before the end of the school day). The tennis courts are popular spots during three seasons of the year, and work is being completed on the courts this year to improve them.

GOLF TEAM

Mr. Kincaid, Bill Shakespeare, Gary Campbell, Bill Walker, Jeff Burdsall, Tom Isgrig, Jerry Hammer.

The golf team played twelve games, winning eight, losing two, and having two ties. The boys had to play on different courses, requiring them to learn the good spots and the rough spots on each.

BOWLING TEAM

ROW 1: Lloyd Shenefelt, Fred Hargrave, Irwin Young, David Mayne, Bob Mooney, Bernie Thompson, Roy Gallopay, Dave Naehring. ROW 2: Mr. Kincaid, Susie Coffman, Sandra Van Der Veer, Debby von Storch, Kay Benckenstein, Linda Nelson, Bob Duncan, Ron McKnew, Chuck Biscay, Bob Horschel, Fred Langhorst, Mike Butler, Ed Bohlander, Dick Scherm, Mike Baker, Bob Steiner, Jack Campbell.

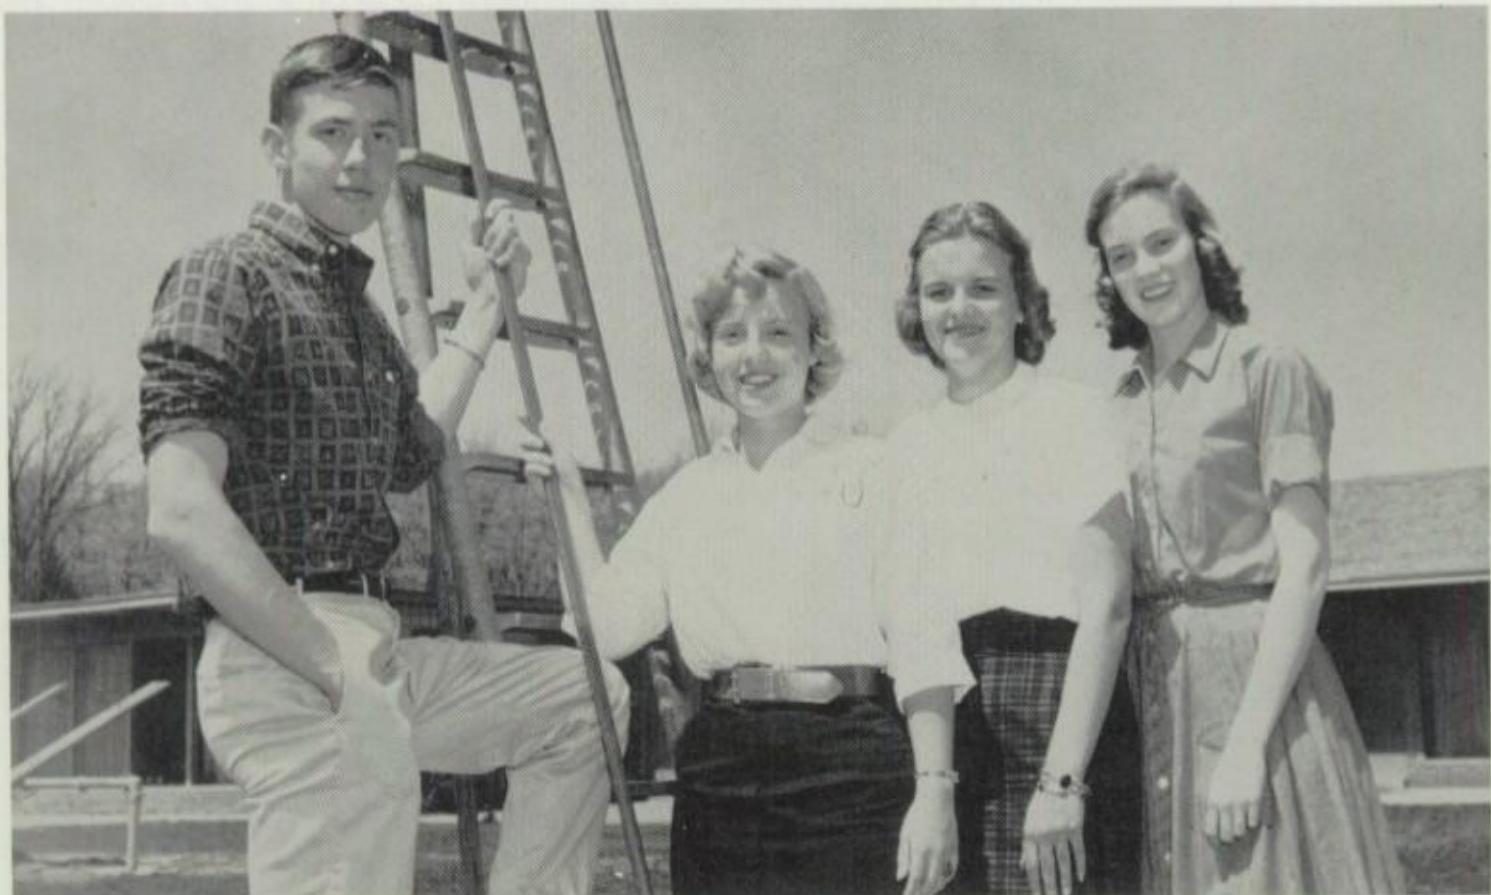

The bowling team did not compete inter-scholastically. They bowled just for the fun and fellowship involved, and had a "marvelous time." During the early part of the year, they used the Milford lanes and the last half of the year they met and played on the Kenwood lanes.

PEP CLUB

Hoo Rah Ray! This cheer, along with many others, resounded through the gym every Friday night as the Pep Club went into action. The newly organized Pep Club, under the guidance of Prexy Janice Tanner, brought school spirit and pep to a new pitch. Colorful banners, beanies and shakers were purchased and used by each member to make the Pep Club pleasing to the eye as well as the ear. For each "away game" our Pep Club turned into travelers, chartering a bus to take them to meet our opponents.

OFFICERS

COACHES

Mr. Chapman, Junior High Football, Basketball, Baseball; Mr. Kaminski, Tennis; Mr. Martin, Varsity Baseball; Miss Thomas, Girls' Hockey, Basketball, Tennis; Mr. Kincaid, Golf and Bowling; Mr. Mahan, Junior Varsity Football; Mr. Allison, Assistant Varsity Football, Reserve Basketball and Baseball; Mr. Boland, Athletic Director, Varsity Basketball, Varsity Track.

The increased enrollment at Indian Hill has brought on the need for more coaches for our athletic program. The year saw several additions to our staff: Mr. Clark as head Football Coach; Mr. Allison as Assistant Varsity Football, Reserve Basketball and Baseball Coach; Mr. Chapman as Coach for the Junior High School; and Mr. Kaminski the school's art teacher, to coach the boys' Tennis Team.

Mr. Clark, Varsity Football, Head Football Coach, Assistant Track Coach.

Outdoor calisthenics CAN be fun as well as classwork.

POW-WOW—1960

"TWO FOR THE FLAG"

"Two for the Flag" was a bright and flashy show with its heart in Alaska and Hawaii, the two new additions to our United States. Besides featuring songs and dances from these two states, the 1960 Pow-Wow spotlighted the whole world in a gay, festive beam.

The script, written by Mr. William P. Kincaid, was ably supported by a talented student body and our versatile band under the direction of Mr. R. Earl Snapp. The production was given on three successive and very successful nights, March 17, 18, and 19. It will be difficult ever to top a show like "Two For The Flag."

1

1. Hawaii may be the home of the hula dancers, but I.H.H.S. has some little "hula lovelies," too.
2. Betsey is "'fluting'" her way through the fifty states in the guise of the wandering minstrel.
3. Combining histrionic and musical talents, this quartet made quite a hit with the audience.
4. Who said the Russian ballet dancers were tops in the field? That was said before the coquettish pixie from I.H.H.S. arrived on the stage.

Day in, day out, classes meet, up the stairs, down the stairs, students come, students go. Those things we see every day, we often do not notice. This old fellow sees all, hears all, says nothing. We see him, but seldom notice him. We recognize him in this volume of "Things That Make Up Our School Life."

OLYMPIC DAY—1960

When the Spanish Club initiates new members they can be sure of one of the most frightening ceremonies at Indian Hill. Still, the membership is always on the rise, and Spanish Club remains one of the most active and most fun clubs in school.

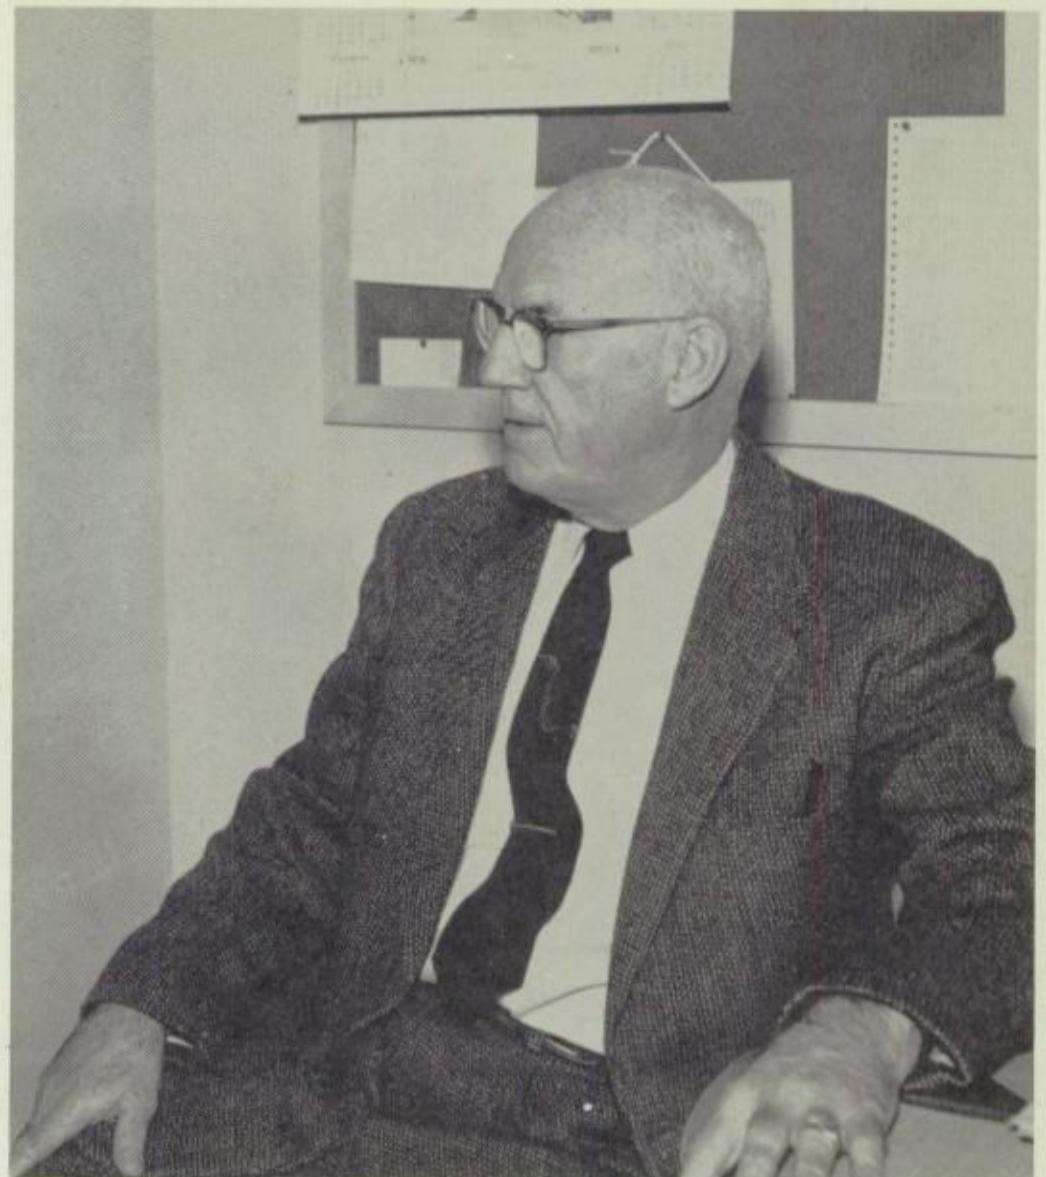

SUPERINTENDENT RESIGNS

Mr. C. M. Patrick, who has been our superintendent for the past twelve years, tendered his resignation, effective as of June 30, 1960. We remember the times he listened to our problems, never too busy to take the time and offer suggestions and guidance.

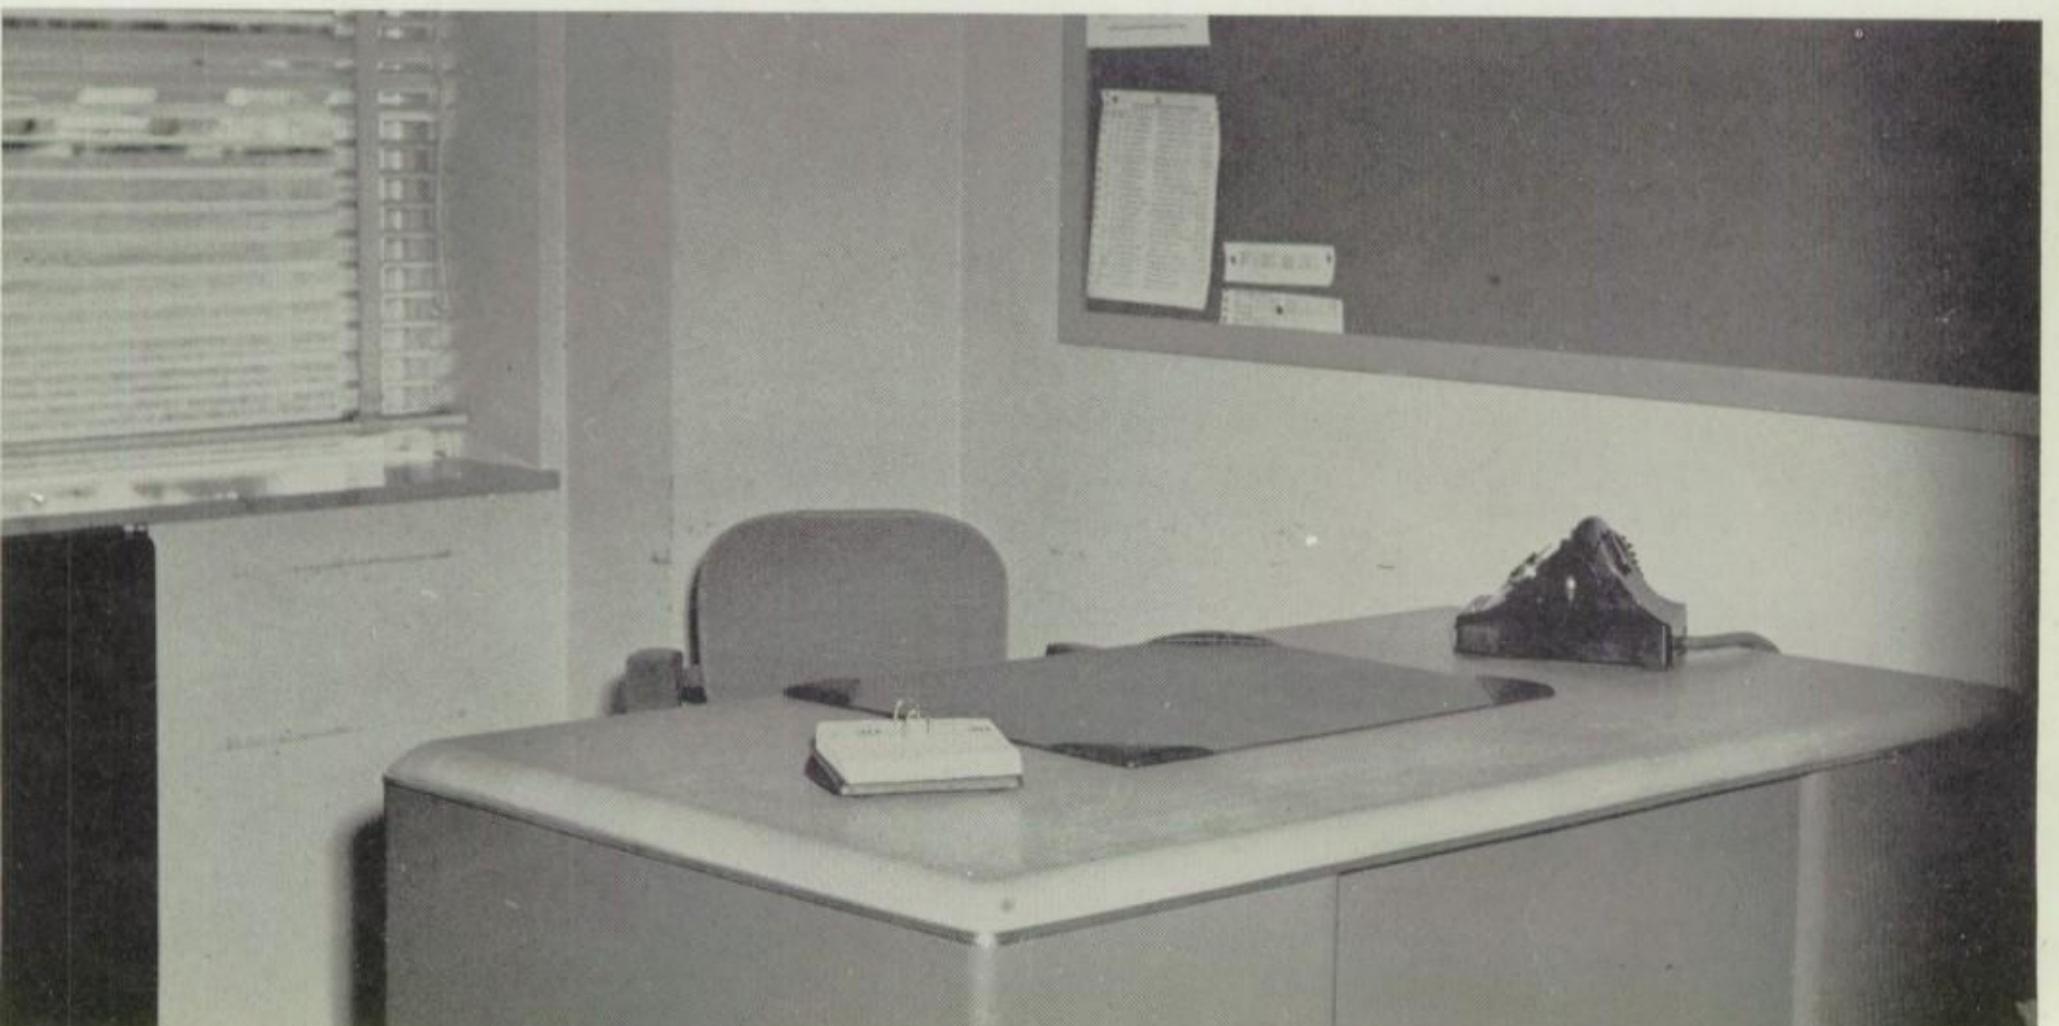

We remember his "I think I am talking to all the rooms" when he had an announcement to make over the public address system. We remember that his sense of humor was always near the surface and that he laughed with us at our jokes, teased us when we needed teasing, scolded us when we needed scolding, stood back of us to bolster our faltering courage, and never seemed to have an idle moment, but at the same time, never seemed to be in a rush.

We are young, Mr. Patrick, and we know that the future is ours to make, but we wish to pause here to say "thanks" for those things which you have taught us through the many things you have said and done and been. We shall try to "measure up" to all that you have wished for us and hoped for us.

And now the desk is cleared off, the chair is left, and we, the graduating class of 1960, wish you joy and contentment in whatever you choose to do. Yes, it is "farewell" to you, Superintendent Patrick, and "hail" to the one who must fill your place.

WELL-WISHERS FOR THE LEGEND

The staff of THE LEGEND wishes to thank all of those who have assisted in making this book possible by purchasing space in the advertising section of the annual.
